CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

■ All requests for working press, radio, television or photo credentials should be emailed to Mark Wallington (mark.wallington@unlv.edu) no later than one week prior to the game. Proof of coverage may be required. Requests for season credentials should be made no later than two weeks prior to the first game.

■ Space in the Sam Boyd Stadium press box for working media is limited and will be at the discretion of the UNLV Media Relations Department. Only credentialed media members will gain entrance. In compliance with the working code of the Football Writers Association of America, children, spouses, dates and pets are not permitted. Sam Boyd Stadium is a non-smoking facility, except for designated areas.

■ Credentials will not be mailed – they may be picked up at the UNLV Media Relations Department (located in Room 75 of the Thomas & Mack Center on campus) by 4 p.m. on the day before the game or at the Press Will Call window (South End Zone, Sam Boyd Stadium Ticket Office) beginning two hours before kickoff.

MEDIA PARKING

While parking is free at Sam Boyd Stadium, passes for media-lot parking are available on a game-by-game or seasonal basis. Please contact the Media Relations Department to request any passes, which must be picked up by 4 p.m. on the day before the game or at Will Call on the day of game. Directions to the media parking area are included on the back of each pass.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

■ UNLV practices held at Rebel Park on campus are open to the general public and members of the media on a limited basis. During regular game weeks, the team will have Sundays off and hold evening practices Tuesdays and Wednesdays. From Aug. 27 to Oct. 13, Tuesday and Wednesday practices will run from approximately 6:45-9:15 p.m. Starting Oct. 14, the practices run from 3:45-6:15 p.m. Thursday practices are open but players and coaches are not available to the media.

■ Those needing interviews and practice times must contact UNLV Media Relations. Interviews must be conducted prior to or at the conclusion of practices. No player or coach interviews will be conducted during practice or on Thursdays. Media wishing to interview players before practice must be at Rebel Park at least 15 minutes before practice begins. Videotaping and photography is allowed through the first four, 10-minute periods of practice, which begin after stretch. Contact Media Relations in advance to guarantee arrangements.

CREDENTIAL POLICY FOR INTERNET SITES

Internet companies that run sports-related content websites will be considered for media credentials to UNLV Athletics events only if the company in question meets both of the following criteria: The website in question must be directly affiliated with a traditional news service, agency or company and employ a full-time staff. Also, the individual or individuals representing the website in question must be a legitimate sports/news reporter and must provide written authorization from their respective editor to illustrate that they are directly affiliated with a traditional news service, agency or company. Correspondence from anyone other than an editor will not be accepted. The UNLV Media Relations Department has final authority on whether any individuals from any organization will be issued media credentials.

PHONE INTERVIEWS

Those needing a telephone interview with either Coach Hauck or Rebel players must contact UNLV Media Relations at least 24 hours in advance. Player phone interviews will generally be available after practice on Tuesdays or Wednesdays.

MEDIA SERVICES

WEEKLY FOOTBALL RELEASE

UNLV makes its athletics-related media releases available exclusively on the internet website www.unlvrebels.com. "UNLV Football News" will be prepared each week from Aug. 25-Nov. 24 and be posted on the school's official site by Monday morning in Adobe PDF format. However, the release is also available through electronic mail. Any members of the media interested in having the weekly release and/or all Rebel football releases emailed to them should request to be added to the general list by emailing football contact Mark Wallington at mark.wallington@unlv.edu.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Hauck and select players will appear at a press conference for any credentialed media each game week inside the Lied Athletic Complex on Mondays from 2:00-2:20 p.m PT. Please call UNLV Media Relations for more information.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

- A complimentary pregame buffet meal is scheduled to be served during the two hours before kickoff while complimentary Coca-Cola fountain products will be available throughout the game.
- A program and roster card will be available for working press. An internal PA system will provide updated information and notes throughout.
- Play-by-play, quarterly, halftime and final statistics will be provided along with postgame quotes from Coach Hauck and opposing coach.
- Sam Boyd Stadium's press box features complimentary high-speed wireless internet access to credentialed media.

DIRECTIONS TO STADIUM

Sam Boyd Stadium (7000 E. Russell Road, Las Vegas, NV 89112) is located approximately seven miles from the UNLV campus in Las Vegas. From McCarran Airport, go south (right) on Tropicana Ave. and continue until reaching the stadium. From the World Famous Las Vegas Strip, head south on Tropicana Ave., which eventually leads you to the entrance of the stadium, where you can enter the parking lot at Gate 1.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

To reach the press box, media members should enter through the gates at the base of the Findlay Toyota Tower where two elevators are available along with a staircase. The print level, radio booths and TV booth are all located on the fourth floor. The camera deck can be found on the tower's rooftop, which is only accessible via the left elevator.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

No free-lance photographers will be credentialed. All sideline photographers/videographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must wear their credential in plain sight at all times. The bench areas between the 25-yard lines are off limits to all media representatives. Please be advised that a special Photo/Video Zone has been created along all open zones. This is designed specifically to help you shoot during games but a separate arm band provided by UNLV must be visible at all times while in this zone.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The UNLV locker room will be closed to the media. After an NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period, a post-game press conference will be held with Coach Hauck in an interview area located behind the locker rooms. Following the game, credentialed media will enter the area by walking on field level around the building in the North End Zone. UNLV players will be available outside of the Rebel locker room as they exit to the North parking lot.

REBELS ON THE AIR

RUSS LANGER
Radio Play-by-Play

Award-winning announcer Russ Langer enters his third season as play-by-play voice of UNLV Football in 2014. The nine-time Nevada Sportscaster of the Year is a familiar sound to area fans as he completes his 15th season calling games for the Las Vegas 51s professional baseball team, Triple-A affiliate of the New York Mets. Langer, who serves as Director of Broadcasting for the Pacific Coast League franchise, was also the New Mexico Sportscaster of the Year in 1999 when he was play-by-play voice of the Albuquerque Dukes. The University of New Mexico graduate is a two-time Minor League Broadcaster of the Year. His Major League Baseball broadcasting experience includes more than 40 games for the Baltimore Orioles, Chicago White Sox and Montreal Expos. Langer has also broadcast high school football in four different states over the last two decades.

MIKE PRITCHARD
Radio Game Analyst

Las Vegas native and former NFL star Mike Pritchard joined the UNLV broadcast team in 2006 as radio analyst for Rebel football. After a stellar career as a running back at Las Vegas' Rancho High School, Pritchard went on to the University of Colorado (1987-90) where he would become the second-leading receiver in school history with 1,241 yards. His college career included being named team MVP during the Buffaloes' 1990 National Championship season. Pritchard was the 13th overall selection by the Atlanta Falcons in the 1991 NFL Draft and became one of five players in league history to catch more than 200 passes in his first three seasons. He played nine years in the NFL: three with the Falcons, two with the Broncos and four with the Seahawks. Pritchard was inducted into the Southern Nevada Sports Hall of Fame in 2007.

RADIO HOME OF THE REBELS

All 13 UNLV football games can be heard on Rebel flagship station ESPN 1100 AM (KWWN) & 98.9 FM. Russ Langer and Mike Pritchard will again bring Rebel fans all the action as part of a continuing partnership with Lotus Broadcasting. Games begin each week with a full half-hour of pre-game analysis and features. ESPN 1100 AM & 98.9 FM are also the home to "The Bobby Hauck Radio Show," which will air live on Wednesdays from 12-1 p.m. PT unless otherwise announced. For the fourth consecutive year, the show will originate from Born And Raised lounge, which is located at 7268 S. Cimarron Road in Las Vegas.

WEEKLY TV SHOW

In 2013, KVVU FOX5 became the new home of the official UNLV television coach's show. During the season, the "Reb Zone Sports Show," hosted by Sports Director Kevin Bolinger, airs Sunday nights at 11 p.m. exclusively on FOX5 following FOX5 News at 10 pm Weekend Edition and FOX5 SportsPlus.

UNLV TO APPEAR ON ESPN NETWORKS AND CBS SPORTS NETWORK

UNLV football will appear on national television throughout the 2014 season on various outlets. The Rebels open the slate by traveling to Arizona for a special Friday night game on Aug. 29 that will be shown by ESPN. At least four other UNLV games will be part of the ESPN family of networks -- at San Diego State, at San Jose State, at Utah State and vs. Nevada, Reno in the regular-season finale. UNLV will also appear on CBS Sports Network when it hosts Fresno State on Friday, Oct. 10. The remaining games are subject to be shown by other partners such as Root Sports and on the two-year-old Mountain West Network.

The Mountain West has exclusive national television rights agreements with CBS Sports Network and ESPN, Inc. CBS Sports Network is the primary rights holder and 2014 will be the network's ninth year broadcasting Mountain West football games. In 2013, the Mountain West and ESPN, Inc. announced a long-term agreement, establishing the network as the second national television partner for Conference-controlled football and men's basketball games. Between the two networks, at least 44 football games will be televised annually on their various platforms. The CBS Sports Network and ESPN agreements are scheduled to run concurrently through 2019-20.

The Mountain West, in collaboration with Campus Insiders and Volar Video, greatly expanded the video content and reach of its digital network in the fall of 2013. Under this unique alliance, the Mountain West livestreams hundreds of its men's and women's sporting events, adds branded studio programming, develops sponsorship opportunities and grows distribution on multiple platforms and devices.

CBS SPORTS NETWORK

Available to 99 million homes nationwide, CBS Sports Network is the 24-hour destination of CBS Sports. The Network televises more than 300 live games and over 2,000 hours of original programming every year. The network is distributed via cable systems and satellite on DIRECTV (Channel 613) and Dish Network (Channel 158).

ESPN

ESPN, Inc., is the world's leading multinational, multimedia sports entertainment company featuring a portfolio of more than 50 multimedia sports assets. The company is comprised of eight U.S. 24-hour television networks (ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNEWS, ESPNU, ESPN Classic, ESPN Deportes, ESPN 3D and Longhorn Network) and five HD simulcast services (ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPNEWS and ESPN Deportes). Other businesses include ESPN Events, ESPN International (35 networks, syndication, radio, digital), ESPN Radio (broadcast, satellite, digital, a growing category led by ScoreCenter), ESPN.com (plus a variety of sport-, college-, and market-specific sites), ESPN The Magazine, ESPN Enterprises and espnW.

UNLV ON TV

UNLV's 2013 TV appearances included four games on ESPNU, one on CBS Sports Network and one on the Big Ten Network.

UNLV will open on national television for the fifth straight season in 2014

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

Since 2000, UNLV football has made appearances on CBS Sports Network, VERSUS, The Mtn., ABC, TBS, Fox Sports West & Fox Sports Arizona, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPN+Plus, ESPN3, ESPN 3D, Big Ten Network, Big East Network ROOT and SportsWest. This season's campaign will include at least five game on ESPN Networks.

UNLV WINS ANOTHER GOVERNOR'S SERIES TROPHY

Even though the score was closer this time around, the final result was the same as the UNLV Athletics Department was again the winner of the Governor's Series presented by NV Energy and sponsored by Barrick Gold. The Rebels won the 2013-14 all-encompassing competition with Nevada, Reno by the final score of 30 to 18. UNLV took the inaugural trophy by the score of 37.5 to 10.5. UNLV earned its points in the most recent competition in the sports of football, women's soccer, women's volleyball, women's indoor and outdoor track and field, women's basketball, softball, women's golf, men's golf and baseball. "Congratulations to our student-athletes, coaches and staff in bringing home another Governor's Series trophy," UNLV Director of Athletics Tina Kunzer-Murphy said. "Every Rebel fan across the globe can take great pride in winning the first two years of this competition and lay claim to having the top athletics department in the Silver State."

Nevada Governor Brian Sandoval presents the Governor's Series trophy to then-UNLV President Neal Smatresk (Right), Director of Athletics Tina Kunzer-Murphy and Board of Regents Chair Kevin Page (Left).

UNLV PARTNERS WITH IMG COLLEGE

Now in its eighth year as the exclusive multimedia rights holder for UNLV Athletics, IMG College is the nation's leading collegiate marketing and media company that can create and build comprehensive, integrated marketing platforms that will leverage the marketing potential of its collegiate properties. Headquartered in Winston-Salem, N.C., IMG College is also a partner with more than 90 major college athletic programs, conferences, bowl games and venues. IMG College produces and markets a variety of sponsorship opportunities surrounding UNLV Athletics, including radio play-by-play, advertising in various athletics department publications and on the official athletics department website www.UNLVRebels.com, signage in university athletic facilities, and at-event promotions.

Leading the IMG staff at UNLV is General Manager Eric Kovac, who joined IMG College in 2011, bringing a level of passion, enthusiasm, and creativity that had an immediate positive impact on UNLV and its sports marketing efforts. Kovac has proven success in sports marketing and sales. Prior to joining IMG College, he has worked with PepsiCo, Cox Media, Letizia Mass Media, and the Las Vegas Gladiators. Kovac is a graduate of California State University-Northridge.

A talented and energetic sales team operates under Kovac's direction in the sales and marketing of Rebel sports. Associate General Manager Steve Moser, a 1989 UNLV graduate, is a proven sales and marketing professional in the Las Vegas area with previous experience with the Las Vegas Thunder (hockey) and Las Vegas Stars (baseball), as well as UNLV.

Account Executive Telly Stratas joined IMG College in 2012 after previously serving as vice president of sales for Town Media. Prior to that, he served as senior account executive of Latizia Mass Media and senior account manager at Midstate Advertising. Stratas is a graduate of Auburn University.

Account Executive Damon Cross is the newest member of the UNLV IMG College Team and has sports experience in college, Arena Football, the NBA and the UFL. Cross graduated from Fisk University in Nashville where he was a track and field NAIA All-American. He earned his master's degree from University of Phoenix.

Partner Services Coordinator Erin Skuse joined the IMG College staff in 2013. She graduated from Arizona State University from the W.P. Carey School of Business with a B.S. in marketing and a certificate of international business.

MOUNTAIN WEST

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State joined the Mountain West in 2011, followed by Fresno State and Nevada, Reno in 2012. That's the same year that the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San Jose State and Utah State joined, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, Reno, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West Coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean.

Mountain West members have participated in 62 bowl games under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games. The MW has earned 72 postseason bids in men's basketball, including 40 NCAA Tournament appearances and two NIT Final Four berths. MW women's basketball has tallied 63 postseason slots, including 33 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. The MW has produced 840 All-America selections among its 18 sponsored sports (men's swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season) in the last 15 years. A total of 160 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The league has captured three team national championships in women's cross country and produced 36 individual national champions.

MOUNTAIN WEST FOOTBALL

Entering the 2014 season, the MW has six contracted bowl affiliations – the Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego Country Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, Hawai'i Bowl, Famous Potato Idaho Bowl and Gildan New Mexico Bowl. In 2013, the MW sent a league-record six teams to bowl games after the inaugural MW Foootball Championship game took place Dec. 7, 2013, as West Division Champion Fresno State downed Mountain Division champ Utah State in a game televised by CBS.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in five inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco, 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl.

When San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg became the top pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West became one of only two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the league's founding in 1999.

COMMISSIONER CRAIG THOMPSON

Craig Thompson was the Mountain West Conference's first employee when he was named Commissioner on Oct. 15, 1998. Ever since, Thompson has navigated the newest NCAA Division I conference through the ever-changing landscape of intercollegiate athletics. As the league enters its 16th season of competition in 2014-15, Thompson continues to create and improve the opportunities for Mountain West institutions and student-athletes to be successful both academically and athletically.

Since the Mountain West opened its doors on Jan. 4, 1999, Thompson has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW has flourished under the guidance of Commissioner Thompson and continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship.

As conference realignment spread throughout the collegiate landscape over the past few years, Thompson positioned the Mountain West for the future with the additions of Fresno State and the University of Nevada, Reno on July 1, 2012, and San Jose State University and Utah State University on July 1, 2013. The University of Hawai'i also joined the league as a football-only member in 2012.

His leadership and vision have helped the conference enhance its television revenue and exposure through revolutionary agreements with CBS Sports Network, Comcast and ESPN, including becoming the first major collegiate athletic conference to launch a dedicated sports channel featuring exclusive programming around its athletic programs. Thompson has been instrumental in strengthening the position of the Mountain West in the current Bowl Championship Series (BCS) structure. In 2006, he spearheaded an effort that resulted in better access for the MW and more than doubled the annual BCS revenue on an annual basis for non-automatic-qualifying conferences.

Through its first 15 years of competition, the Mountain West has participated in 62 bowl games, amassing a 35-27 (.565) all-time record in those contests. Over the last 10 seasons, the MW has captured the Bowl Challenge Cup four times and owns the second-best win percentage in bowl games among the 10 FBS conferences with a 28-19 mark (.595).

Prior to his current role, Thompson served as the commissioner of the Sun Belt Conference for nearly eight years and as the only commissioner of the American South Conference prior to the merger of the two leagues in 1991.

Thompson graduated from the University of Minnesota with an undergraduate degree in journalism. Following graduation, he spent two years as assistant sports information director at Kansas State University. He then spent three years as director of public relations and promotions for the NBA's Kansas City Kings. Thompson and his wife, Carla, have a son (Ted) and a daughter (Emma).

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

CFB PLAYOFF ERA BEGINS

Beginning with the 2014-15 season, college football will enter a new era when a postseason playoff will begin. The format is simple: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and a national championship game played in a different city each year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in primetime on a Monday night at least a week later. The semifinals will rotate among six different bowls, extending the experience to more fans. In the years when the bowls are not hosting semifinals, the bowls will feature eight other teams in four compelling matchups. The top-ranked champion from a non-contract conference, which includes the Mountain West, will play in either the Fiesta, Cotton or Peach bowl each year.

2014-15
Semifinals: Jan. 1
Championship: Jan. 12 in Arlington, TX

2015-16
Semifinals: Dec. 31
Championship: Jan. 11 in Glendale, AZ

2016-17
Semifinals: Dec. 31
Championship: Jan. 9 in Tampa, FL

MW FOOTBALL IN THE POSTSEASON

For the seventh consecutive year, the Mountain West sent at least five teams into postseason bowl games, including filling a record six bowl spots in 2013. The conference has earned 62 bowl bids since 1999 and holds a 35-27 all-time record in those contests. The MW has finished with a winning record in the postseason in five of the last eight years.

Since 2003, the MW owns the second-best win percentage in bowl games among the 10 FBS conferences with a 28-19 mark (.595).

Over the last 10 seasons, the MW has captured the Bowl Challenge Cup four times and is the only conference to win the trophy more than twice since the award's inception in 2002-03. The Bowl Challenge Cup was created by ESPN as a competition among the conferences in the FBS during the bowl season. In order to win the trophy, a conference must have the highest win percentage with a minimum of three teams participating in the postseason.

The Mountain West earned its first Bowl Challenge Cup with a 2-1 bowl record in the 2004-05 season. The league also won the Cup in 2007-08 and 2009-10 with identical 4-1 marks. In 2010-11, the MW again claimed the Cup after finishing with a 4-1 postseason mark.

SAM BOYD STADIUM

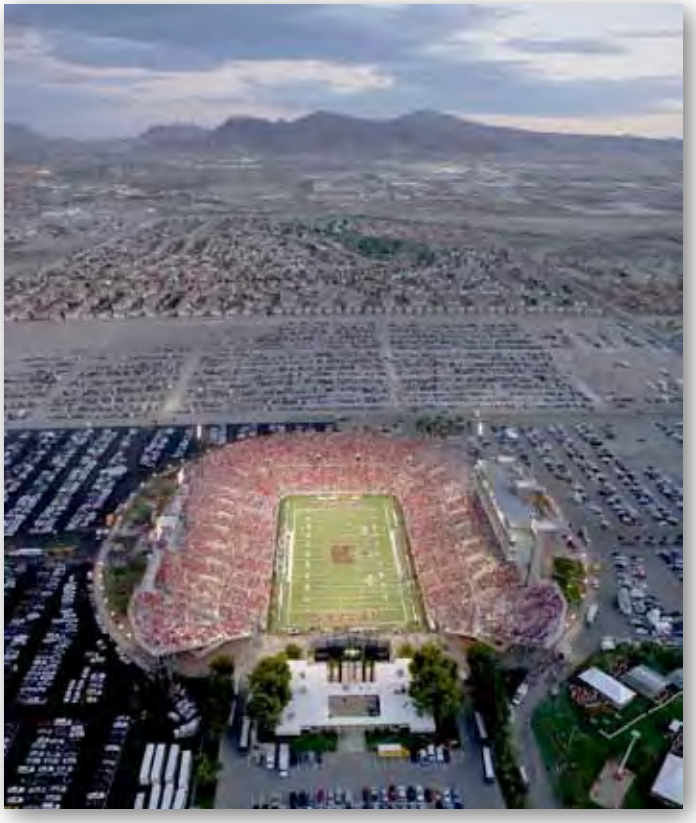
Undergoing a complete facelift and renovation during 1999, Sam Boyd expanded to its present capacity of 36,800 (with the ability to seat more than 40,000 when called for).

Located in Las Vegas approximately seven miles from both the UNLV campus and McCarran International Airport, Sam Boyd Stadium successfully combines the excitement of a college football stadium and the versatility of an entertainment arena. The Rebel football team has posted a 143-117-3 record in 42-plus seasons playing there, including in front of a record three sellout crowds in 2007.



SBS marked its 25th anniversary in 1996 by hosting the state's then-largest-ever sporting crowd on Sept. 14 when 41,091 fans witnessed UNLV take on Wisconsin. That total was surpassed just three months later when 41,238 saw BYU get past Wyoming in the first WAC Championship game. That record was re-written once more when 42,075 fans saw the Badgers return to face the Rebels on Aug. 31, 2002. The 2006 Las Vegas Bowl ultimately upped the record to 44,615 in a game between BYU and Oregon.

The stadium has hosted some of the greatest talents in sports and show business. Future NFL quarterbacks Randall Cunningham, Jim McMahon, Drew Bledsoe, Carson Palmer, Andre Ware, Alex Smith, John Beck, Andy Dalton, Colin Kaepernick and Kellen Moore are among those who have played at Sam Boyd Stadium along with events involving athletes such as soccer legend Pele and motor sports stars. Additionally, the stadium has hosted world-class concerts by such musical acts as the Dave Matthews Band, the Eagles, U2, Paul McCartney, Wayne Newton, and the once-annual summer appearances by the Grateful Dead.

A mecca for football played on all levels, the stadium is currently site of the Las Vegas Bowl each December, including seven sold-out crowds in the last nine years, after serving as home to three Western Athletic Conference championship games from 1996-98. The facility has served as host to professional football three times, including housing the two-time United Football League champion Las Vegas Locomotives in 2009-10. The Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL made it their home in 2001; and the Las Vegas Posse, a Canadian Football League franchise, played one season in 1994. SBS also hosts high school games and has been site of the state's prep championship.

The venue also hosted two other college football events: the Silver Dollar Classic, which featured teams from historically black universities, and the Las Vegas All-American Classic all-star game from 2003-05.

Originally named Las Vegas Stadium when it was built in 1971 at a cost of $3.5 million, the facility was re-named the Las Vegas Silver Bowl in 1978 and then known as the Sam Boyd Silver Bowl in honor of local gaming pioneer Sam Boyd beginning in 1984. Its name was officially shortened to Sam Boyd Stadium in April 1994.

The first event held in the then-15,000-seat stadium was a UNLV football game against Weber State on Oct. 23, 1971, won by the visiting Wildcats, 30-17. Official dedication ceremonies, however, took place the next season on Sept. 9, 1972, at halftime of a 35-28 loss to Western Illinois before 8,800 fans.

SBS, which has always retained its horseshoe shape, underwent an expansion to 32,000 seats in 1978 and again enjoyed improvements in 1994. The Rebel Experience area outside the stadium opened in 1997.

One of the highlights of the most recent renovation was the replacement of the so-called "Magic Carpet" retractable artificial turf that had been in place since 1985. Originally fitted with traditional AstroTurf, Sam Boyd was the first stadium in the world to install a Monsanto Corp. outdoor retractable turf, which helped give the facility its multi-purpose capability. The surface, which simply rolled up into cylinders in less than an hour, was installed at a cost of $1.2 million in part through a grant by the Sam Boyd family. Natural grass replaced the artificial turf from 1999-2002 before a synthetic surface, made by TurfTech, was installed in time for the 2003 season.

2014 ROYAL PURPLE LAS VEGAS BOWL SET FOR SBS

The 23rd edition of the Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl, which will feature a matchup of a Mountain West team vs. a Pac-12 member, will kick off on Saturday, Dec. 20, with a 12:30 p.m. local start. Last year's game saw USC down Fresno State in what is now the 16th-oldest bowl current bowl game in college football. Played every year since 1992 at Sam Boyd Stadium, the Las Vegas Bowl will be nationally televised by ABC-TV.

REBEL GAMEDAY

UNLV CHEERLEADERS & DANCE TEAM

Two of the nation's best-known spirit squads, the UNLV Cheerleaders and the UNLV Dance Team (Rebel Girls) are fixtures at all Rebel football games. The teams perform at various UNLV athletic events and volunteer their time to appear at various events throughout the Las Vegas community. The Cheer Team also devotes time to instructing the UNLV Rebel Starzz – a group of young dancers ages 3-16 that performs at games each fall.

THE REBEL EXPERIENCE

Premiering at Sam Boyd Stadium in 1997 was the Rebel Experience. Situated in the northwest parking lot, the 64,000-square-foot-area is predominantly grass and includes six 30x60-foot cement pads that can be reserved for large gatherings and corporate outings.

THE STAR OF NEVADA MARCHING BAND

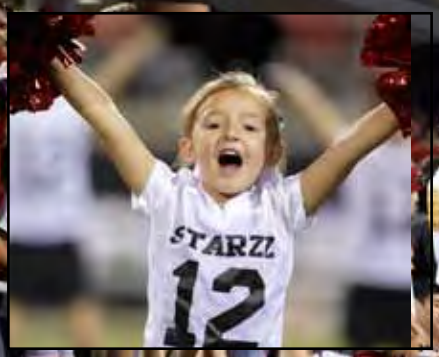
Numbering more than 100 strong, the Star of Nevada Marching Band, which began in its present form in 1978, is a big part of Rebel Football Gameday. Whether it's pumping up the crowds at the Rebel Experience or entertaining fans at halftime, home Saturdays at Sam Boyd Stadium would not be the same without strains of "Win with the Rebels" peppering the autumn air. Directed by Tony LaBounty, the UNLV band is announced by Dr. Harvey Allen who in 2014 goes into his 36th season as the voice of the Star of Nevada Marching Band.

UNLV FIGHT SONG
"WIN WITH THE REBELS"

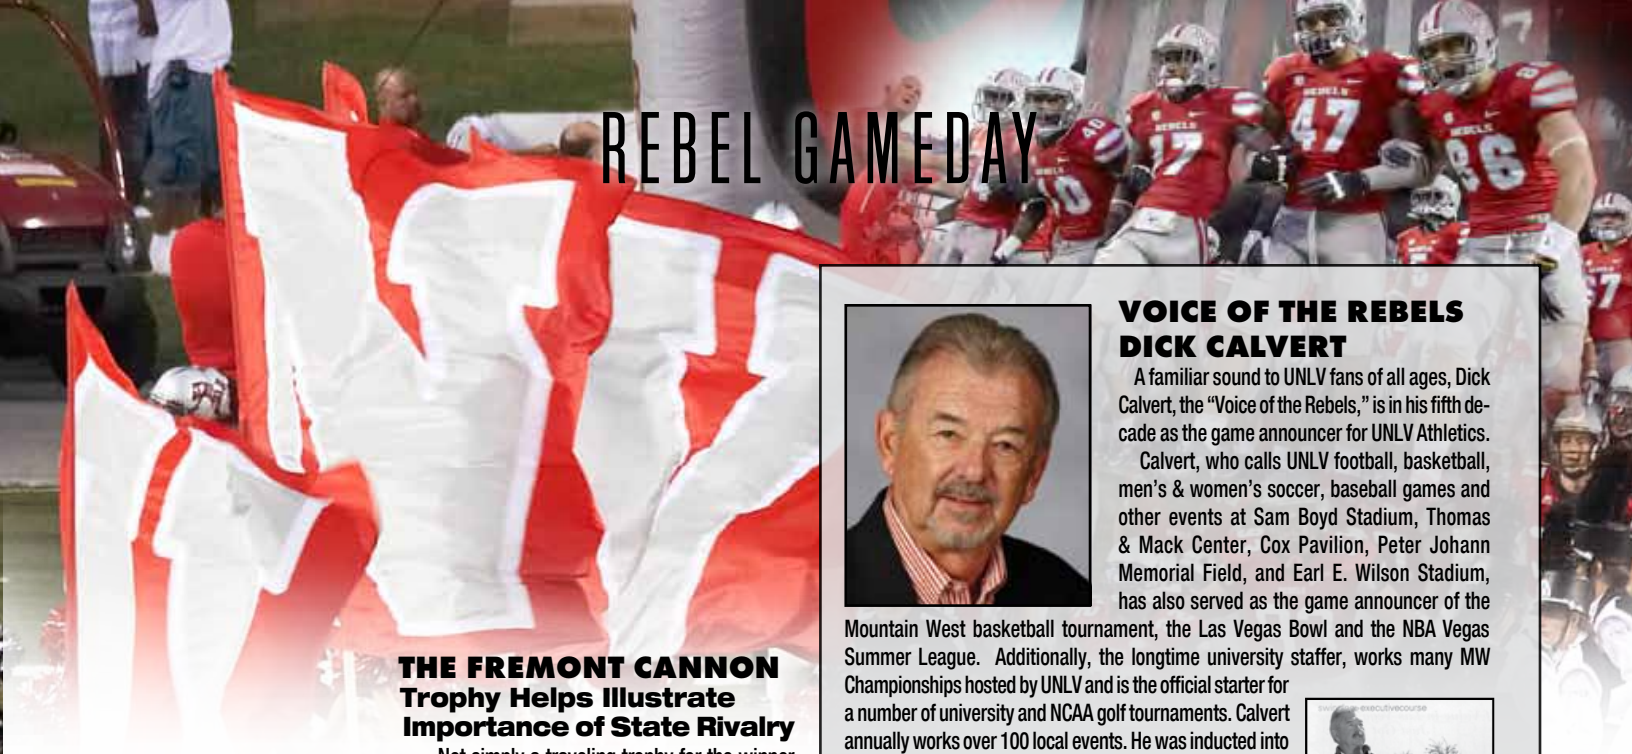
Win with the Rebels a victory today!
Win with the Rebels, the Scarlet and Gray.
From mountains that surround
you to far across the sea.
We'll win with the Rebels of UNLV.
U-N-L-V UNLV Go, Fight, Win.
We'll win with the Rebels of UNLV.

UNLV ALMA MATER

Alma Mater, we praise you
For spirit, the eternal flame,
Strength which never falters,
A tribute to your name
Alma Mater, we thank you,
Exalted Scarlet and Gray.
Truth and wisdom from your standard
In our minds and hearts will stay
Alma Mater, we cherish you.
And in our days that are yet to be,
Our voices let us ever raise
In honor, U-N-L-V.



REBEL GAMEDAY



THE FREMONT CANNON
Trophy Helps Illustrate Importance of State Rivalry

Not simply a traveling trophy for the winner of the UNLV vs. Nevada, Reno game, the Fremont Cannon is ever-present at the annual Battle for Nevada.

The tradition of awarding the cannon to the victors started more than four decades ago when the Rebels' first football coach, Bill Ireland, felt the young rivalry between the north and south schools could use a symbolic trophy to stimulate interest. The prize turned out to be a replica of the howitzer used by John C. Fremont, one of America's foremost trailblazers, as he headed west into Nevada in 1843. Legend has it that Fremont violated U.S. War Department rules by taking the cannon with him on his westward trek without permission and then abandoned the weapon in a Sierra-Nevada snowdrift.

Built by the Kennecott Copper Corp., Nevada Mines Division, the cannon was originally valued at more than $10,000 and is considered one of the best, and heaviest, symbols of rivalry in college football. The Fremont is one of only two cannon prizes in all rivalry games, along with Illinois vs. Purdue. In 2014, the cannon was named the best rivalry trophy in all of college football by Yahoo! Sports.

The Wolf Pack held the cannon first because they had beaten the Rebels 30-28 in the initial game of the series on Thanksgiving Day 1969. UNLV promptly won rights to the big gun in 1970 with a 42-30 home win and went on to dominate the series with eight wins in the next 11 games played. After UNR rebounded to win five straight games (1989-1993), UNLV regained the cannon in its Silver Anniversary Year in 1994. Last year UNLV went to Reno and won the cannon back to trim the Wolf Pack's lead to 23-16 in the series, which has been continuous since 1987. The teams will meet again in Las Vegas on Nov. 29, 2014, to decide who gets to keep the fabled cannon.

VOICE OF THE REBELS
DICK CALVERT

A familiar sound to UNLV fans of all ages, Dick Calvert, the "Voice of the Rebels," is in his fifth decade as the game announcer for UNLV Athletics.

Calvert, who calls UNLV football, basketball, men's & women's soccer, baseball games and other events at Sam Boyd Stadium, Thomas & Mack Center, Cox Pavilion, Peter Johann Memorial Field, and Earl E. Wilson Stadium, has also served as the game announcer of the Mountain West basketball tournament, the Las Vegas Bowl and the NBA Vegas Summer League. Additionally, the longtime university staffer, works many MW Championships hosted by UNLV and is the official starter for a number of university and NCAA golf tournaments. Calvert annually works over 100 local events. He was inducted into the Southern Nevada Sports Hall of Fame in June 2010.

The former play-by-play broadcaster is also one of the most experienced commentators of American professional soccer, having served 18 seasons in both the North American and Major Soccer leagues.

The Las Vegas resident retired from broadcasting and the UNLV Athletics Department after serving as the director of broadcasting, director of athletic marketing for Olympic sports and director of athletic facilities/operations. Calvert and his wife Anne have four adult children and are the proud grandparents of 10.

HEY REB

Embodying the Rebel spirit of the University he promotes, UNLV's Hey Reb made his debut in 1983 and received a makeover in 1997. Named one of 12 All-American Mascots, he competed for the title of 2004 Capital One Mascot of the Year and made a strong showing by coming in second in online voting. No stranger to national television, however, Hey Reb has appeared in two memorable ESPN SportsCenter commercials and multiple LG TV ads (pictured, right) during March Madness 2013.

REBEL HISTORY

Opened as a satellite campus in 1957, the southern regional division of the University of Nevada became Nevada Southern University in 1965 and finally evolved into University of Nevada, Las Vegas four years later when the Board of Regents granted it autonomy under the state's higher education system.

Men's basketball was the first sport organized at UNLV, opening play in 1958 under head coach and athletic director Michael "Chub" Drakulich. Baseball, also coached by Drakulich, started in 1960 and football came to campus nearly a decade later when head coach Bill Ireland's squad went 8-1 in 1968. Women's club sports such as tennis emerged in 1960 under administrator Alice Mason but basketball became the first women's varsity sport in 1974. UNLV currently sponsors seven men's and 10 women's athletic programs.

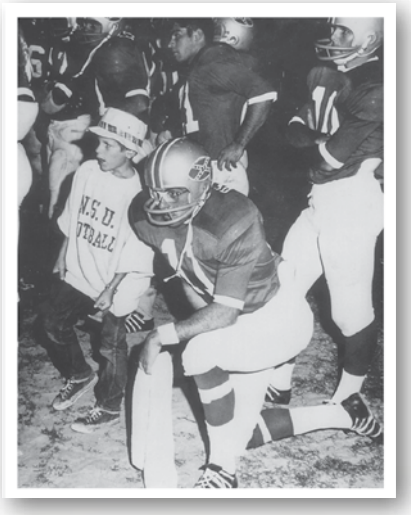
NICKNAME

The nickname "Rebels" was given to UNLV athletic teams because the school, emerging from the shadow of the University of Nevada, Reno, in effect "rebelled" against its bigger and older brother to the north.

The name "Runnin' Rebels" (always spelled without a 'g') was coined in 1974 by then-sports information director Dominic Clark but refers only to the UNLV men's basketball team.

COLORS

The school colors of Scarlet and Gray can be traced to the late-1950s when UNLV adopted as mascot a wolf wearing a Confederate uniform. Scarlet and Gray were traditional colors of the Confederacy with its gray uniforms and red-based flag.



The first Rebel football team (1968) was the only squad that played as Nevada Southern University.

MASCOT

Today it's Hey Reb but some at UNLV still remember the first official Rebel mascot, Beauregard.

Dressed in a gray military field jacket and Confederate cap, Beau is a fanged, winking, black and white cartoon wolf. He came to be because the new school in Southern Nevada wanted to take a little jab at the Wolf Pack mascot of Nevada, Reno.

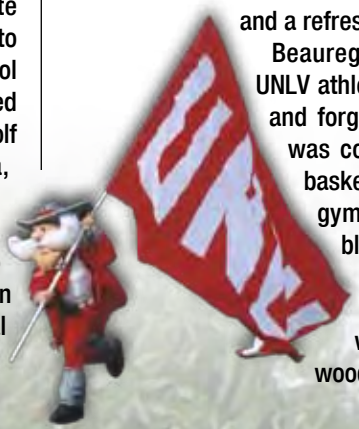
"UNLV was rebelling against the status quo and the two schools' mascots seemed to mimic the Civil War," said former UNLV president, the late, Don Baepler, who later directed the Marjorie Barrick Museum of Natural History on campus. "Reno had a northern looking wolf so we wanted a Confederate wolf."

The logo lasted until the early 1970s when a group of black athletes came to Baepler, who was academic vice president at the time, and voiced its displeasure with having a mascot that had a connection with the wrong side of the Civil War.

"They said it didn't feel right playing for a school with such a mascot...and I agreed," said Baepler. "Southern Nevada has no real ties to the Confederacy so the change wasn't a big concern."

The student senate voted on a new mascot and the human Rebel logo was born. Initially, a Colonial-like Rebel soldier was the official logo and there was talk at one time of changing UNLV's nickname to Minutemen. Essentially there was no recognized UNLV mascot for about a half-decade spilling into the early 1980s. Enter Mike Miller, the award-winning local graphic artist who eventually became the creator of the cartoon man with a long moustache known as Hey Reb. Miller, who was inducted into the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012, said his inspiration for the logo was historical Nevada frontiersmen from the 1800s such as John C. Fremont and Kit Carson. "The character is supposed to be a trailblazer of the old West," said Miller. "I just sketched out a little mountain man with a long coat that had some fringe on it." Despite the new Rebel eventually being displayed as having striking white hair on his head and face, Miller said Hey Reb was never supposed to be an old man and put his intended age at around 30 years old. As for the unusual name of the new character, there was no campus contest or high-priced marketing focus group involved.

"I just wrote Hey Reb on the back of his coat on one of the many variations I gave them," he said. "I was hoping it would be a good slogan – a yell-out cheer at games – but it never really caught on." The mascot, however, did catch on in a big way as UNLV vaulted to the top in college apparel licensing within the decade. In 1997, a more muscular version of Hey Reb, minus a musket, was introduced and a refreshed version was developed in 2006.



Beauregard may not be prevalent in today's UNLV athletic events, but he's certainly not gone and forgotten. The original sketch of the wolf was converted into a mid-court painting for basketball games played in the old University gymnasium. Today, visitors can visit the black, white, scarlet and gray logo circle (pictured, center) in its original position at what is now the Barrick Museum, which still uses the existing oak hardwood basketball floor to hold its exhibits.

All-America candidate WR Devante Davis shattered the UNLV record for touchdowns in a season last fall with 14. That total tied him for seventh in the nation and now makes him college football's leading returning TD catcher from a year ago.

TOP RETURNING FBS TD RECEPTION LEADERS

RK	PLAYER, YR, POS, SCHOOL	2013 TDs
1.	Devante Davis, Sr., WR, UNLV	14
2.	Antwan Goodley, Sr., WR, Baylor	13
	Josh Harper, Sr., WR, Fresno State	13
4.	Matt Miller, Sr. WR, Boise State	12
	Devante Parker, Sr., WR, Louisville	12

BRETT AND BOB ARE BACK TO BLOCK

UNLV has a chance at making history this season as it boasts two honors candidates along the offensive line: senior Brett Boyko at left tackle and senior Robert Waterman at center. Since they first joined a league in 1982, the Rebels have never had more than one offensive lineman named first team all-conference. In fact, it's been a dozen years since UNLV had even one first-teamer up front (Tony Terrell in 2002). Last season, Boyko grabbed a spot on the second team while Waterman picked up his third consecutive honorable mention. However, Waterman (who is back on the Rimington Trophy Watch List for a third time this fall) and Boyko both swept First Team Preseason All-MWC nods from Lindy's, Athlon and Phil Steele's.

BOYKO

WATERMAN

CANADIAN CREW

In 2011, OT Brett Boyko became the first player to join the program from North of the Border since walk-on Andrew Dubiellak lettered as a receiver in 2000 and '01. However, UNLV now sports a trio of Canadians on its roster as Boyko's since been joined by fellow blocker Tom Clarkson (British Columbia) along the Rebel offensive line and running back Shaquille Murray-Lawrence (Ontario), who joined UNLV out of Tyler JC. Last year, there were 33 Canadians playing FBS football across the United States and 19 schools had at least one Canuck on their active roster. Michigan State led the way with four while UNLV, Iowa and Virginia had three each. Boyko, however, does have the distinction of being the only current player on the FBS level to attend high school in the province of Saskatchewan.

KICKOFF KING

Las Vegas native Marcus Sullivan heads into his final season as UNLV's career kickoff return average leader with 26.69 yards per attempt. While he did not technically make it into the NCAA stats because he missed the season's first four games, Sullivan's average of 28.3 yards per return on a team-leading 18 attempts a year ago ranked third in school history and 10th in the nation.

BATTLE BORN

After spending his first two years on campus wearing No. 7, sophomore linebacker Marc Philippi has earned the honor of wearing Battle Born Jersey No. 36 for the Rebels. Born and raised in Las Vegas, the graduate of national powerhouse Bishop Gorman High School redshirted his first season before earning his first letter in 2013. Head Coach Bobby Hauck, who began the tradition at UNLV in 2010, announced in the summer that Philippi would be the fifth Battle Born honoree. In 1864, Nevada became the 36th state to enter the union, and the state's nickname, which appears on the flag, is "Battle Born," reflecting the state's entry on the Union side during the American Civil War. Rebel Football Jersey No. 36 -- complete with a patch on the back of the state flag -- is worn annually by a Nevadan who best exemplifies the Battle Born spirit of his state and the toughness and pride of Rebel Football.

REBELATIONS...

• The 2013 Rebels were the least penalized program in the MW and ranked third in the country with just 3.46 flags per game (ranked sixth overall with 31.23 yards per game). In fact, against Western Illinois, UNLV did not have a single penalty enforced against it for the first time in history. Bobby Hauck's squad also shattered the program marks for least total penalties (45, breaking the record of 59 set in 1998) and least total penalty yards (406, breaking the record of 516 set in 2008).

• Returning starting CB Kenneth Penny had the second-most pass breakups in the country last year with 18 (just two behind national leader Tim Bennett of Indiana) and ranked 11th with 1.4 passes defended per game. The 18 PBUs ranked fourth in school history and fellow returning starter Tajh Hasson tied for fourth in the league with 11 as the team finished with 55. All of this helped the Rebels lead the conference in fewest passing yards allowed with 217.7 per game. That's one year after ranking ninth in the MW in that category.

• With both offensive coordinator Timm Rosenbach and defensive coordinator Tim Hauck returning for their second season with UNLV, this will mark the first time since 2010-11 that the Rebels will have the same coaches in the coordinator positions for two consecutive years.

• UNLV will open its 2014 season at Arizona on Friday Aug. 29, which marks the fourth consecutive season that the Rebels' opening game is played on either a Thursday or Friday. UNLV is set to visit Arizona Stadium for just the second time ever and first time since 2001. The trip to Tucson follows the Wildcats' game in Las Vegas last fall.

• The 2013 Rebels won five games in Mountain West play for the first time since the league was formed in 1999. In fact, UNLV tied for the second-biggest turnaround, by percentage, in the 2013 college football regular season. With a five-win improvement over its 2012 record, UNLV's 42.9-percent jump in winning percentage trailed only BCS National Champion runner up Auburn. The five-win bump tied for the second best in program history, trailing only Ron Meyer's 1973 UNLV team's seven-win jump as a member of Division II.

#REBBLOODED

SEASON

A year removed from its celebrated first bowl trip in 13 years, the 2014 UNLV football team is squarely focused on the next step of building a program -- consistency. In fact, they'll look to post a winning record in two straight seasons for the first time since legendary All-American Randall Cunningham was under center and crushing punts way back in 1983-84. Reach that milestone and the Rebels figure to go bowling in back-to-back seasons for the first time in history.

With 50 lettermen and the entire coaching staff returning from a veteran bowl squad and a seamless spring session having been turned in at Rebel Park, head coach Bobby Hauck likes what he sees going into his fifth season in Las Vegas.

"Being able to have staff continuity last year to this year was huge for us in terms of what we were able to accomplish in the spring," says Hauck. "How far ahead we are ahead of the past coming out of spring ball, coupled with a veteran group of players, we are excited about the fall."

There are 14 returning starters and a roster projected to finally flirt with reaching 85 scholarship players for the first time in a decade. After a 7-5 regular season, winning a school-record five Mountain West games including against its in-state rival and earning a bowl trip for the first time since 2000, you'll understand confidence throughout the program is rapidly rising.

"Right now we are in the best shape we've ever been," says Hauck. "We're better. We're more talented. We know how to play. We know how to win."

THE OFFENSE

At first glance, the offense seems to be an area of concern with the graduation of both super-efficient starting quarterback Caleb Herring and all-time Rushing King Tim Cornett. But this is no longer your old-style thin Rebel roster that just rides the hot hands of senior folks at the skill spots. Quality depth is in good supply all over this side of the ball along with a leader-laden offensive line.

Also back is offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Timm Rosenbach, who is in his second season after the Rebels formerly had three directors of the offense in as many years.

The exciting attack's 389 points scored were the second most in program history and records fell for total plays, pass completions and first downs. The Rebs also tied their record for fewest fumbles lost over a season with just five and threw only 10 interceptions compared to 27 touchdowns to go with 25 rushing scores. Hauck's squad also ranked third in the nation for fewest penalties called. These indicators of efficiency and effectiveness are further proof that a plan at UNLV is now maturing into a system.

"We are returning nearly everyone on the offensive side of the ball," Hauck says. "If our quarterbacks continue to progress we'll have a chance to put more points on the board and control the game and field position with our offense. That's an exciting prospect."

SHERRY

DECKER

QUARTERBACKS

Herring, who didn't even start until the fourth game of 2013, shattered school marks for completion percentage and tossed 24 touchdowns to just five interceptions before departing. However, there is a pair of signal callers ready to fight it out to take over.

Former freshman phenom Nick Sherry (6-5, 235, JR-2L -- 41 of 75 for 337 YDS, 5 INT, 3 TD) started the first three games as a sophomore before Herring took the reigns. Now he will try to replicate what Herring did -- become a former starter who successfully works his way back into the starting spot.

His competition comes from midyear junior college transfer Blake Decker (6-2, 205, JR-TR), who showed promise with both his feet and his arm during a spring practice that was invaluable to get him in position to win the job. Decker put up gaudy stats at Scottsdale JC last fall and is an older athlete after taking a church mission.

Redshirt freshman Jared Lebowitz (6-4, 195, FR-RS) is the other scholarship quarterback who competed in spring.

HAUCK SAYS: "We'll have a great, healthy battle in fall camp to see who gets to start the first game at Arizona. I think both of our top two guys had a good spring practice. They are smart and hard-working so I'm excited to watch that competition in fall camp."

OUTLOOK

RUNNING BACKS

Rock-solid Cornett and his 3,733 career yards (1,284 last year) and 35 rushing touchdowns (15 in 2013) are gone and replacing the only man in school history to lead his team in rushing all four years is not an enviable task for Rebel coaches.

While most lack the size of Cornett, there are plenty of legit candidates to run the rock this fall. The most intriguing candidate is junior David Greene (6-0, 200, JR-2L) who was not only a safety during his first two years but was also named the squad's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year after standing out in kick coverage. He moved over midway through the spring and is a good bet to earn carries. Veteran Shaquille Murray-Lawrence (5-8, 180, SR-1L) ranked second on the team with 418 yards on just 47 carries, which produced a gaudy per-carry average of 8.9 yards. One of three Canadians on the squad, Shaq-Mu came over from junior college and showed true home run ability (108 yards on just four attempts in the season opener at Minnesota) but needs to be more consistent to take over as the go-to back. Young Keith Whitely (5-9, 185, SO-1L) played as a true freshman but primarily as the team's lead kick returner, carrying the football just 10 times for 56 net yards. Redshirt rookie Henri Jussila (5-9, 180, FR-RS) is an import from Finland and has shown impressive power in short-yardage situations. Also keep an eye on two late additions to the Rebel recruiting class who were both good-sized junior-college runners: George Naufahu (6-0, 215, JR-TR) from College of San Mateo and Jamal Overton (5-9, 205, JR-TR) from Mt. SAC.

HAUCK SAYS: "We are replacing the leading rusher in UNLV history, which is a tall order but these guys are capable of doing that. There is still a lot of work to be done to figure out who will get the first carry at Arizona. We have a good competition going on there with capable ball carriers. It will probably come down to who is the toughest and who is the best in pass protection will be the one who starts."

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Nowhere is program progress more evident than the always-tricky-to-build-from-scratch offensive front. This group, which features at least a pair of seniors and has produced back-to-back 1,000-yard rushers, has grown up together as three of five starters return and a fourth guy actually started the first four games at his position.

WATERMAN

BOYKO

Big pro prospect Brett Boyko (6-7, 310, SR-3L) out of Canada is in position to become a rare four-year starter at left tackle. A year ago Boyko was the first Rebel blocker named Second Team All-MW in nine seasons and this year he very well may be the first UNLV O-lineman named to the first team since Tony "Night Rider" Terrell in 2002.

Andrew Oberg (6-7, 280, JR-2L) did yeoman's work in taking over the right tackle starting spot for all 13 games as a sophomore. Another Canadian, Tom Clarkson (6-6, 290, SO-SQ) and the unit's youngster, Kyle Saxelid (6-7, 255, FR-RS) make up the second wave of tackles heading toward autumn.

The guards need to be replaced. Former tight end Nick Gstrein (6-4, 290, JR-2L) started the first four games a year ago at right guard and will battle Charles Howard (6-4, 335, SO-1L) for the 2014 job after Howard switched over from the defensive line during spring ball. Versatile vet Brian Roth (6-5, 300, SR-3L) will go into camp vying for the starting spot at left guard along with local walk-on Eric Noone (6-2, 300, SO-1L).

The man in the middle is yet another candidate to be a four-year starter in the form of Robert Waterman (6-2, 290, SR-3L). The three-time Honorable Mention All-MW center is again a member of the Rimington Award Watch List for the third time come fall. Youngster J'Ondray Sanders (6-5, 270, FR-RS) is listed as the backup.

HAUCK SAYS: "We have a solid group of guys returning who have played a substantial number of games. Our hope is the offensive front will be a real strength for our football team. The seniors anchor a very experienced group. We expect big things out of them."

TIGHT ENDS/ FULLBACKS/H-BACKS

The youth movement at this position is finally slowing down as both of last year's main tight ends are back with more experience. Jake Phillips (6-6, 255, JR-2L) caught 19 passes for 143 yards and a score while Andrew Price (6-6, 240, SO-1L -- 3 for 27 YDS) also proved to be an effective target late in the season.

Wily veteran Taylor Barnhill (6-4, 240, SR-3L) has lined up in various places throughout his career and his senior season doesn't figure to be any different as a TE/H-back. The former quarterback posted career highs with 21 catches for 131 yards and two scores in 2013. Andrew Casey (6-4, 240, SR-1L) is his backup.

HAUCK SAYS: "We've been saying they are a young group for a couple of years. While they are still fairly young, they have the talent to be productive and we expect a big year out of them. We expect a lot out of Taylor Barnhill. He is a hard-working, passionate football player. He's going to have a big year."

SEASON OUTLOOK

DAVIS

WIDE RECEIVERS

UNLV has been blessed with some tremendous receivers in the last decade or so. In fact, four of the school's top-five pass catchers, statistically, have suited up since the start of the New Millennium. However, you would be hard-pressed to name one that boasted as many talents of the game than Devante Davis (6-3, 210, SR-3L). Tall, strong, fast, physical, tough and boasting great hands, the former track star made great strides as a junior to turn in what is known in the biz as A Monster Season. His 87 catches were just one off the school record, his 1,290 yards were just 56 short of the UNLV mark and his 14 touchdown receptions (seventh in the country) shattered the previous record of 11 by Sam "Disco Kid" Greene set way back in 1980.

Davis, who could make a serious run at the Biletnikoff Award and All-America honors, is set to return as the senior leader of a strong receiving corps that also features veteran speed-merchant Marcus Sullivan (5-9, 195, SR-3L) who hauled in 45 passes for 405 yards and five TDs of his own despite missing the first four games of the season.

The catching crew got even deeper in May when the NCAA approved a waiver for another season of eligibility for Maika Mataele (5-11, 180, SR-2L). The former walk-on proved last year that he would go up and over for any pass thrown his way, starting 10 games and finishing third on the team with 36 receptions and 411 yards along with three touchdowns. His return means UNLV brings back a stunning 97-percent of its receiving production from a year ago (195 of 206 WR catches).

Anthony Williams (5-11, 195, JR-2L) is the third-leading returning receiver with his 21 for 188 stats while former JC transfer Aaron Criswell (5-10, 175, SR-1L) rounds out the two-deep. The future is also pushing for time at the JUGS machine. A pair of good-sized grayshirts, who will both be true freshmen this fall -- Devonte Boyd (6-2, 275, FR-HS) and Trent Riley (6-2, 200, FR-HS) -- impressed onlookers during spring while newcomer Kendal Keys (6-3, 190, FR-HS), the younger brother of UNLV safety Kenny Keys, is a tremendous young prospect who will debut in August.

HAUCK SAYS: "This group had a good season a year ago and my hope is they'll increase their production in 2014. We have good veteran players as well as an incoming freshman group I'm very excited about. Devante Davis has made great improvement year to year in his time here at UNLV and if he has the same jump this season as he did a year ago, it will be a special year for him. He is a tough guy. He embraces the entire game. He goes between the hashes. He blocks -- he's a complete football player and a good teammate."

THE DEFENSE

Under first-year coordinator Tim Hauck, who came fresh from the NFL ranks, UNLV's defense leaped up the charts in various categories last fall. Thanks in part to a more-aggressive secondary, the Rebels ranked 36th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (up from 90th in 2012), 41st in passing yards allowed (68th) and 48th in red-zone defense.

Half of the starters are gone but help is on the way from a recruiting class that featured six junior college defenders, including a trio for the front line.

"We have some holes on the defensive side of the ball that we need to fill," says the head coach. "I think spring practice went a long way toward doing that at the linebacker positions, where we lost two out of three starters. We still have some big question marks on the defensive line and those have to be answered during fall camp. If we do find solutions to those issues, this could be a very good UNLV defense."

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The area undergoing the biggest makeover is here on the defensive front. The interior starters are graduated and the depth chart across the entire line may look a lot different than in this publication after the arrival of multiple JC signees in August.

There is a bunch of candidates at the end spots with Sonny Sanitoa (6-3, 260, JR-2L -- 34 TT, 5 TFL in 2013) and Jordan Sparkman (6-6, 265, SR-3L -- 37 TT, 3.5 TFL) leading the way. Former JC addition Siuea Vaesau (6-3, 250, SR-1L) and a young pair of former tight ends who changed sides of the ball during spring, Antonio Zepeda (6-6, 240, FR-RS) and Jacobie Russell (6-4, 235, FR-RS), are next on the list.

Among those vying for the tackle spots are Dominic Baldwin (6-6, 230, SO-1L), Tuli Fakauho (6-1, 300, JR-TR), JC transfer Tui Maloata (6-3, 260, JR-TR) and the other David Green (6-4, 280, SO-SQ).

HAUCK SAYS: "We think we have some good pass rushers on the edge as well as some big, physical run-playing guys on the end so we can build from there. Right now the interior portion of our D-line is a question mark and that's one of the major things we have to address during training camp and probably through September."

LINEBACKERS

You want to talk youthful? How about four sophomores and two freshmen making up this position's six-player two-deep coming out of spring? The "veteran" of the group is sophomore Tau Lotulelei (6-1, 220, SO-1L -- 31 TT, 4 TFL), who is the only current Rebel to have started a game at linebacker. Battle Born Jersey 36 honoree Marc Philippi (5-10, 210, SO-1L), who got his feet wet in 2013, backs him up at the weakside spot. The middle could see a battle between Iggy Porchia (6-2, 210, SO-1L) and late addition Ryan McAleenan (6-2, 230, JR-TR), a former San Jose State signee who played last year at College of the Canyons. Trent Langham (6-2, 210, SO-1L) is the leader at the strongside over Matt Lea (5-10, 210, FR-RS).

HAUCK SAYS: "This is a very young group with no juniors or seniors competing in spring. One of the major concerns during spring ball was to see if some of our young guys would develop into players that can compete in the Mountain West. I think we're moving that direction. They will be good, the question is will they be good enough in time for fall 2014?"

SAFETIES

UNLV's leading returning tackler Peni Vea (6-1, 200, JR-2L) posted 108 takedowns to go with his two interceptions and he is back to man the strong safety spot. Mike Horsey (6-0, 180, SR-3L -- 43 TT, 6.5 TFL) has improved each year since walking on and now leads that the free safety position after starting the final three games as a junior. Former JC transfer Matt Viñal (6-2, 200, SR-1L -- 31 TT) and converted quarterback Troy Hawthorne (6-3, 195, SO-1L -- 4 TT) make up the next wave.

HAUCK SAYS: "We are continuing to improve at the safety position both in terms of production and depth. I think that it's a position that can be a strength for us in the fall."

CORNERBACKS

A year after wondering who was going to step up at corner, the Rebels now return two senior starters that are arguably the top cover duo in the conference. Honors candidate Kenneth Penny (5-11, 170, SR-3L -- 32 TT, 2 FF) tied for second in the nation with 18 pass breakups in 2013 while Tajh Hasson (6-1, 195, SR-3L -- 49 TT, 1 sack, 1 FF) added 11 of his own to go with an interception.

Longtime contributor Sidney Hodge (5-8, 180, SR-3L), who had 3 PBU in just two games before being injured, was granted another year and could play corner or nickelback. Fred Wilson (6-0, 175, JR-2L -- 22 TT, 3 PBU) and young Tory McTyer (6-0, 175, SO-1L -- 8 TT, 1 INT) should also see plenty of time.

HASSON

PENNY

HAUCK SAYS: "There's real competition to get on the field at corner. We have some veterans that are being pushed by young guys, which makes us better every day. A year ago it was a big question mark coming out of spring and now it's considered a strength. Credit that to those guys' work ethic and wanting to be good."

THE SPECIAL TEAMS

UNLV's all-time leading scorer, Nolan Kohorst, graduated so a replacement at place-kicker is going to need to be found in either late junior-college signee Jonathan Leiva (6-0, 175, JR-TR) or versatile linebacker/PK Nicolai Bornand (6-1, 230, SO-1L), who handled kickoff duties a year ago as a freshman.

Another question mark from a year ago -- punter -- is now on solid footing as Logan Yunker (6-2, 200, JR-1L) made the most of his transfer from UNR, finishing ranked 47th in the nation with a 41.8-yard average.

Marcus Sullivan will enter his final season as the school's career leader in kick return average at 26.69 yards per attempt. While he did not make it into the national stats because he missed the season's first four games, Sullivan's average of 28.3 yards per return ranked 10th in the nation a year ago. Keith Whitely will vie to be back on both kickoffs and punts after doing both as a true freshman last fall.

HAUCK SAYS: We have a JC kicker coming in who we anticipate being our kicker. Nicolai had a great spring kicking as well as at linebacker. We expect our return and coverage units to be good again. If our specialists hit the ball well and field the ball well again, we'll be good in the kicking game again."

THE SCHEDULE

The 47th season of UNLV football kicks off Friday, Aug. 29 with the Rebels' visiting Arizona for just the second time ever and first time since 2001. The trip to Tucson follows the Wildcats' visit to Las Vegas last fall.

UNLV's home schedule opens Sept. 6 with Big Sky Conference member Northern Colorado coming to Sam Boyd Stadium in a game that will mark just the second meeting between the schools as the Rebels downed the Bears 35-31 in 1979.

On Sept. 13, perennial Mid-American Conference power Northern Illinois will make its first trip to Las Vegas since 1987 to kick off a two-game series with UNLV. The following week, what was originally slated to be the first of two bye weeks morphed in May into a trip on Sept. 20 to play American Athletic Conference member Houston. The first meeting between the schools since 1990 will offer Devante Davis a chance to play in his hometown while the other Texans on the Rebel roster also won't mind a trip to the Lone Star State.

The Rebels will open their conference schedule with back-to-back road games in California vs. fellow-West Division members. First up is a Sept. 27 contest at San Diego State that marks the earliest meeting with the Aztecs since a non-conference game in 1982. The following week on Oct. 4, UNLV plays at San Jose State for the first time since the teams were both members of the WAC in 1996.

The school's only October home game in 2014 is set for Friday, Oct. 10 when defending MW champion Fresno State takes on the Rebels in Las Vegas for the first time since 1996. After its bye week, UNLV then plays at Utah State Oct. 25.

For the second straight season, the Rebels will play three home games in November. New Mexico comes in Nov. 1 and Air Force flies down one week later on Nov. 8. The final non-conference game will see UNLV play at BYU on Nov. 15 in the first meeting with the Cougars since they left the MW after the 2010 campaign.

A trip to Hawai'i is scheduled for Nov. 22 and the home finale will see UNR come to Sam Boyd Stadium during Thanksgiving weekend on Saturday Nov. 29. The teams will play the Battle for the Fremont Cannon at the end of the regular season for the first time since 1977. The in-state rivals used to regularly end their season against each other (six times from 1969-77) before the game moved up on the calendar.

HAUCK SAYS: "We already knew the non-conference schedule would be demanding but having back-to-back road games twice during the season will be a really big challenge for us. I am very excited that the rivalry game (vs. UNR) is at the end of the regular season. That's where it should be."

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

POWER BEHIND THE PROGRAM

ERIC HOHN

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Under first-year coach Eric Hohn, the philosophy of the UNLV Football strength & conditioning program is to prepare the student-athlete for the game of football. The program is constructed in phases, with each phase having a specific goal that is peaking during the competitive season. The program is predominantly free-weight based, incorporating multiple sets and reps. Each phase of the program includes:

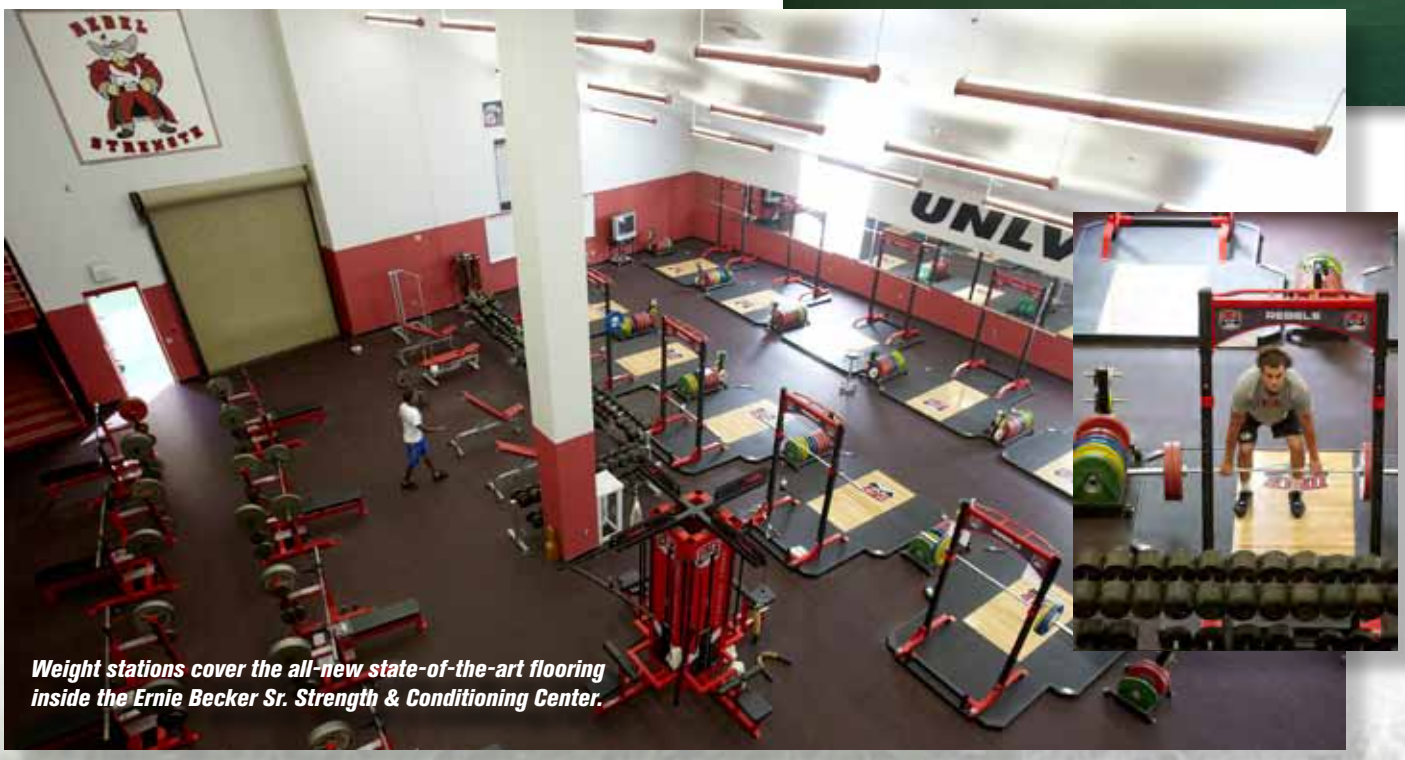
-Olympic Movements (cleans, snatches and variations of both)

-Squats (front, back and single-leg)

-Presses (bench press, incline press and push press)

The Ernie Becker Sr. Strength and Conditioning Center's 8,500-square-foot deck features all-new free weights, power racks and Olympian platforms. The 1,200-square-foot balcony level offers stretching and cardio areas. The room also features a premium sound system to further enhance the workout experience.

The covered agility drills area features 3,000 square feet of artificial turf.



Weight stations cover the all-new state-of-the-art flooring inside the Ernie Becker Sr. Strength & Conditioning Center.

Rebels Wear Only The Best

UNLV'S All-New Bill Ireland Locker Room

114 custom-made player lockers fill the Bill Ireland Locker Room inside the Lied Athletic Complex.

PAUL PUCCIARELLI

Director

Now in his 30th year overseeing the equipment department for UNLV, Paul Pucciarelli says he and the school are committed to outfitting players to be both safe and stylish on the football field.

"My philosophy behind equipment is that student-athletes have enough problems, that is, they have to compete in the classroom and on the field — worrying about equipment shouldn't be a problem," says Pucciarelli, widely known as Pooch. "Our players are lucky because of the system we have set up here. The athletic department and the university provide us a tremendous support group."

The Lied Athletic Complex's 10,000-square-foot, two-sided equipment room gives all 17 UNLV sports the services of an immense facility designed with the student-athlete in mind.

In one of 19 team and staff locker rooms, players and coaches can simply drop off their uniforms at the end of a practice or competition. The next day a clean version will be waiting for pickup in personally assigned lockers located in a wall surrounding the equipment room.

SPORTS MEDICINE

THE FINEST CARE

The Marilyn & Si Redd Sports Medicine Complex sprawls over an 8,500-square-foot area.

A skylight welcomes natural light into the rehabilitation room.

KYLE WILSON

DIRECTOR

Providing the best possible preventative and rehabilitative care, the UNLV football athletic training staff is headed by Director of Athletic Training Kyle Wilson, who is in his 31st year at the school.

Made possible by a generous gift of $1.5 million from Marilyn and Si Redd, the Lied Athletic Complex's athletic training facility incorporates the total scope of sports medicine over an 8,500-square-foot area.

Aside from five staff offices, a rehabilitation room houses a dozen pieces of equipment including Cybex stationary bicycles, stair machines and treadmills, all under a natural skylight.

The largest area features a dozen tables to offer student-athletes various treatments throughout the day. Taping, padding and bracing all take place in another all-inclusive room.

Finally, an aquatic therapy room features three above-ground whirlpools surrounding a 10-feet deep pool for rehabilitative exercises.

PALATIAL PRACTICE PARK

The Ernie Becker Sr. Football Fields at Bill "Wildcat" Morris Rebel Park

One of college football's largest and most impressive areas of its kind, Bill "Wildcat" Morris Rebel Park has been transformed into an athletic showcase over the past decade. In 2010, a state-of-the-art UBU synthetic surface was installed at a cost of $700,000. The artificial surface was originally installed in 2002 thanks to a $1 million gift from the family of Ernie Becker Sr. A completely new lighting system soon followed.

Also, Bruce Bayne of Peccole Nevada and Ernie Becker Jr. helped develop an all-new grand entrance to the park, complete with pine trees, desert rocks and an archway. The palm-tree-lined area includes two full-sized practice fields. Also, Terry Manley of Champion Homes is responsible for the UNLV Football Manley Corner, which welcomes visitors, staff and student-athletes onto campus and into the heart of Rebel Football.

Eighteen UNLV football players were named to the 2013 Academic All-Mountain West team, which tied with the previous year's squad for the second most in program history. The Rebels, who hit double figures on this list for the eighth consecutive season, ranked fifth among the 12 football teams in the conference this year. The program record-high is 20 set in 2008. The group of Rebels included two players from the Las Vegas area who earned the honor for the fourth straight year: senior defensive lineman Tyler Gaston and senior linebacker Tim Hasson. Making their third appearance on the annual list were junior tight end Taylor Barnhill, junior offensive lineman Brett Boyko and junior offensive lineman Robert Waterman.

Academic advising for football has helped produce 189 such honorees since the school joined the Mountain West in 1999. In addition, 15 Rebel gridders earned spots on the UNLV Dean's Honor List during 2013-14.

All-time UNLV and MW receptions leader Ryan Wolfe played the 2009 season as a graduate student after having earned his bachelor's degree.

IN THE COMMUNITY

REBELS FOR A CAUSE

UNLV and its student-athletes are committed to success both on and off the fields of play. Rebel players have the opportunity to become more involved members of the Southern Nevada community. Through interaction with charitable organizations, local schools, hospitals and various youth events, the Rebels have become increasingly positive role models. Each year, the athletics department's effort in Nevada Reading Week translates into dozens of area schools being visited by nearly a 100 athletes, coaches and staff. Other programs the Rebels have recently taken part in include holiday food drives, Child Haven's holiday party, Communities in Schools, the Santa Clothes program, KLUC Toy Drive, Opportunity Village's Santa Run and Joy Prom.

UNLV BOASTS FOUR COMMUNITY SERVICE ALL-AMERICANS SINCE 2002

UNLV wide receiver Casey Flair was one of only 11 players in the nation named to the 2007 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division I-A Good Works Team. The Alaska native became the fourth Rebel in six years selected to the prestigious collection of student-athletes that has been honored for its performance off the field since 1991. Former UNLV lineman Tony Terrell (Lawndale, CA) was the program's first-ever honoree in 2002 and two-time All-American safety Jamaal Brimmer (Las Vegas) earned the nod in 2004. Las Vegas native Leon Moore was honored in 2005. Nominated by their school's sports information directors and voted on by an AFCA committee, successful candidates must be heavily involved in working for charity and/or service to their community.

UNLV PRO DAY

The UNLV Pro Day takes place on campus each spring. For the 2010 edition, no less than 19 scouts from 16 different NFL teams were on hand. Taking part in all or some of the timed or measured events were a dozen Rebels who just completed their college careers and five of those players earned a spot in an NFL camp. The 2013 edition was highlighted by linebacker John Lotulelei (pictured, right) improving his 40-yard dash time after putting up some enviable numbers in other events during the 2013 NFL Scouting Combine at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis.

HAUCK

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT BOBBY HAUCK...

St. Louis Rams Head Coach Jeff Fisher:
"My son played for Bobby at Montana and we have been nothing but impressed. He produces great players and successful young men. He has tremendous leadership and organizational skills. At UNLV he'll have a great staff, he'll recruit well and he'll win football games."

Former UNLV All-American and NFL QB Randall Cunningham:
"How can you not be excited about him? He's a winner and he's going to do great things for the program and university."

Legendary Sports Broadcaster Brent Musburger:
"Bobby Hauck is a perfect fit for UNLV. Besides growing up in a football family, Hauck is a tireless recruiter. Montana will miss him but he left behind great memories."

Former UCLA Head Football Coach Terry Donahue:
"UNLV is fortunate to get a proven coaching commodity such as Bobby Hauck. He has a great football background and is already a successful head coach and recruiter. He will be a tremendous fit and represent the university well."

Montana All-American and Tennessee Titans Receiver Marc Mariani:
"I have so much respect for Coach Hauck and the way he runs a program. What he expects from you correlates not only to football, but to life in general. I am a better person, both on and off the field, because of Coach Hauck."

St. Johns Head Basketball Coach and former UCLA co-worker Steve Lavin:
"Bobby Hauck comes with an excellent football pedigree and possesses all of the vital attributes that it will take to build the Rebel football program. He is a high-energy guy who is a relentless recruiter, a great motivator and a strong family man. He's also an authentic person who has a way with people in the community and I have no doubt that he will succeed at UNLV."

PERSONAL DATA

Name:	Robert Hauck Jr.
Hometown:	Big Timber, MT
Wife:	Married to the former Stacey Harbin
Children:	Twin daughters Sydney and Alexandra (18); son Robby (16); and daughter Elise (6)

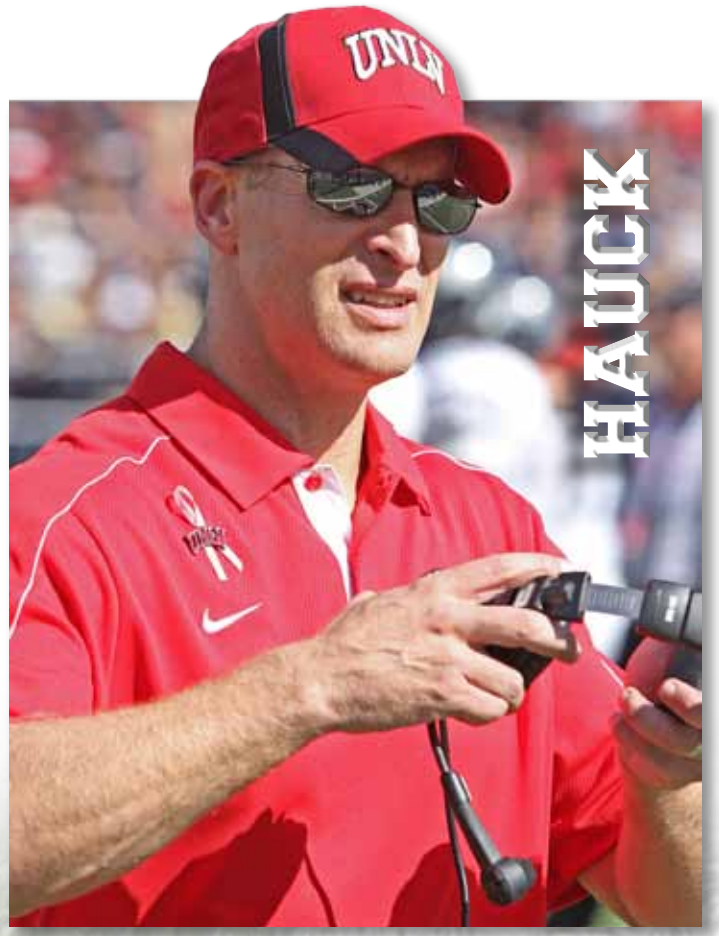
Bobby Hauck, who was the winningest coach in Division I FCS, was hired as the 10th head coach in Rebel football history on Dec. 23, 2009, and immediately charged with spreading an attitude of success and discipline throughout a program thirsting for prosperity.

Hauck (pronounced HOWK) immediately got to work building the UNLV program and guided his new school through some of its toughest schedules in history. After UNLV posted three two-win campaigns, all of Hauck & Co.'s hard work in Las Vegas last year produced a team that won more games than those first three seasons combined. In fact, the 2013 Rebels won five games in the Mountain West Conference for the first time ever, hit the seven-victory mark for only the third time since 1984 and appeared in the postseason for the first time since 2000 when they played on New Year's Day in the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

For his efforts, Hauck was rewarded by the school with a new, three-year contract through the 2016 season.

Before coming to the desert, Hauck had spent the previous seven seasons as the record-setting head coach of the University of Montana where he compiled an overall record of 80-17, including leading the Grizzlies to three national championship games in the NCAA's Football Championship Subdivision (formerly I-AA). The winningest coach in Big Sky Conference history (both in average victories per year and overall titles), Hauck earned at least a share of the league's crown all seven years at Montana en route to compiling a record of 47-6. The more-recent numbers were even more impressive as his records over his last four seasons were 51-6 overall and 31-1 in conference play.

Hauck, 50, was named Big Sky Coach of the Year in 2006, 2007 and 2009 and AFCA Regional FCS Coach of the Year in 2006 and 2009. A veteran of eight bowl games, he also brought with him tremendous FBS experience from stints coaching in both the Pac-10 and Big 12 conferences.



HEAD COACH BOBBY HAUCK

"The future of Rebel Football is bright," Hauck said. "I'm excited to be a part of the process building UNLV Football into a winner. I enjoy working every day with this group of players and coaches, as well as our administration."

Hauck immediately caught the attention of his new community when he announced a 2010 recruiting class that included the most Southern Nevada signees (eight) in program history. The overall group boasted 10 players who were assigned at least three stars by either Scout, Rivals or Scouts, Inc., which was also the most on record for the Rebels.

Hauck was the youngest head coach in modern Montana history when he was named to the post in 2002, and record-setting success soon followed as he compiled four more conference championships than anyone in Grizzly history. His 2009 team finished 14-1 and reached the FCS Championship game for the second consecutive season. In 2007, the Grizzlies went 11-0 during the regular season, marking the first undefeated run for the proud program since 1996. Hauck produced 24 FCS All-Americans during his time in Missoula as well as six NFL Draft picks, including four in his last three years.

Prior to taking over his alma mater, he spent four years at the University of Washington (1999-2002) where he coached defensive backs and special teams and was considered one of the top recruiters in college football as the Huskies went to a bowl game each season. Before that he was at the University of Colorado for four seasons (1995-98) where he was the special teams and recruiting coordinator while also coaching the safeties.

Prior to joining the Buffaloes, Hauck coached the outside linebackers and handled recruiting duties for Northern Arizona University (1993-94). He served as a graduate assistant at UCLA in 1990-91 under Terry Donahue and in 1992 served as the Bruins' on-campus recruiting coordinator.

Hauck began his collegiate coaching career as a volunteer assistant for Montana in 1988-89, working with the secondary and then the inside linebackers. A native of the Treasure State, Hauck was a three-sport star at Sweet Grass High School in Big Timber, Mont., and went on to twice letter in track and field at the University of Montana. His first coaching position was in 1987 as an assistant at his prep alma mater.

Hauck earned bachelor's degrees in business and physical education from Montana in 1987 and a master's in education administration from UCLA in 1991. He and his wife, Stacey, have four children: daughters Sydney, Alexandra and Elise and son, Robby.

His late father, Robert Hauck Sr., coached high school football in the state of Montana for three decades and his brother, Tim Hauck, played 13 seasons as a defensive back in the NFL and joined UNLV as defensive coordinator in 2013 after spending the previous year on the coaching staff of the Cleveland Browns.

ASSISTANT COACHES

CEDRIC CORMIER
Wide Receivers

Cedric Cormier (pronounced "cor-MEER") is in his fifth season overseeing the Rebel receivers. He came to the desert after serving in the same capacity at Miami (Ohio) University. He spent the 2009 season coaching the RedHawks after working the previous two seasons overseeing receivers at Montana.

At UNLV, Cormier has recruited and then tutored record-setting wide receiver Devante Davis, who earned Second Team All-MW honors in 2013 after shattering the school record for touchdown catches in a year with 14 to go with 87 receptions (one off the school record) and 1,290 yards (second-most in program history).

In Missoula, he coached future NFL wideout Marc Mariani, who in 2008 was a second team All-American and, after being drafted by the Tennessee Titans, earned a spot in the NFL Pro Bowl as a rookie.

Prior to Montana, Cormier was an assistant coach at Baytown Lee (Texas) High School for two seasons after starting his coaching career at Channelview (Texas) High School in 2004. While at Channelview he coached future Chicago Bear wide receiver Johnny Knox.

The Houston native was a four-year letterman as a receiver at Colorado from 1998-2001.

Cormier earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Colorado in 2002. He and his wife, Roshelle, have a son, Deon, and a daughter, Danielle.

DOMINIC DASTE
Running Backs

Former Pac-10 player and coach Dominic Daste (pronounced "DAS-tee") has overseen UNLV's running backs for five seasons.

His tenure includes coaching all-time Rebel rushing king Tim Cornett, who was named Second Team All-MW in 2013 after scoring 15 touchdowns and leaving with 3,733 yards, the second-most in league history.

Daste moved to Las Vegas after seven seasons as an assistant at Montana. He coached the Grizzlies' tight ends for his last four years and also spent 2009 as running game coordinator for the high-powered UM offense. He helped mentor a pair of all-conference tight ends during his time with the Grizzlies.

Daste began his tenure at UM coaching the offensive line. He went to Missoula after two seasons as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Washington, where he worked with the offensive line.

A native of San Dimas, Calif., he earned four letters for the Huskies and in his six seasons as a player and then coach, UW went to a bowl game every year, including the 2001 Rose Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree in geography from Washington in 2001.

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHAD GERMER
Offensive Line

Chad Germer (pronounced "JUR-mur") was hired as UNLV's offensive line coach in 2010 after serving in that same capacity at Montana.

In Las Vegas, Germer has coached three-time honorable mention all-league center and Rimington Trophy Watch List member Robert Waterman. Also, in 2013 Second Team All-MW honoree left tackle Brett Boyko became the first Rebel blocker honored by the league since 2004. Germer's lines helped produce the school's all-time leading rusher as Tim Cornett finished with 3,733 yards, which is also the second-most in conference history.

At Montana, his lines opened up holes for standout running back Chase Reynolds as the 2009 second team All-American rushed for 22 touchdowns and 1,502 yards. The Grizzlies ranked 18th in the FCS in fewest QB sacks allowed as well.

Germer is also a veteran of the Mountain West, having spent six seasons coaching the offensive line at the University of Wyoming from 2003-08. While with the Cowboys he tutored several All-MW performers.

A 1991 All-America center at Montana, he began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1998 and went on to coach four All-Americans during his first stint at UM, which lasted five years.

Germer earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from UM in 1993.

MICHAEL GRAY
Defensive Line

Michael Gray, who coaches the defensive line at UNLV, boasts an extensive coaching resume. A veteran of the Pac-10 and SEC, Gray came to Las Vegas after spending four seasons coaching the defensive line at his alma mater, the University of Oregon, from 2005-08.

He returned to the Ducks after coaching two years at the University of Kentucky (2003-04). That was preceded by a six-year stint at Oregon State (1997-2002) during which the Beavers played in three bowl games, including the team's 41-9 rout of Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl.

Gray spent two seasons in the NFL as part of the staff of the St. Louis Rams (1996-97), one year at Weber State (1995) and got his first coaching job for the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions (1993-94).

The Baltimore, Md., native played two seasons at Oregon (1981-82) before turning in an eight-year career (1985-92) playing in the CFL for B.C. and Winnipeg, including a trio of Grey Cup Championship squads.

Gray earned his bachelor's degree in recreation and park management from Oregon in 1984. He and his wife, Susan, have a son, Parker. The family also has a dog named Darby.

ASSISTANT COACHES

TIM HAUCK
Defensive Coordinator
Cornerbacks

Former NFL player and coach Tim Hauck joined the UNLV football staff as defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach in 2013. Under Hauck, the Rebels jumped from 90th to 36th in pass efficiency defense and from 68th to 41st in passing yards allowed. The defense posted 55 pass breakups, including 18 by Kenneth Penny, which ranked second in the nation.

Before joining the Rebels, Hauck spent the 2012 season in the NFL as an assistant coach for the Cleveland Browns, overseeing the defensive backs. He spent the 2009-10 seasons as assistant secondary coach for the Tennessee Titans. Prior to joining the Titans, he coached safeties at UCLA for a defense that ranked second in the Pac-10 Conference in pass defense in 2008. Before that, he spent four years at his alma mater, the University of Montana, overseeing the entire secondary in 2007 after three years working with the safeties from 2004-2006.

The younger brother of Bobby Hauck, Tim played safety in the NFL for 13 seasons, retiring in 2002. He originally signed with the New England Patriots as a free agent in 1990 and played for Green Bay, Seattle, Denver, Indianapolis, Philadelphia and San Francisco.

A two-time First Team All-American (1988-89), Hauck played safety at Montana for three seasons after originally starting his college career at Pacific University in Oregon. He was voted the Big Sky Conference's defensive MVP as both a junior and a senior.

KRAIG PAULSON

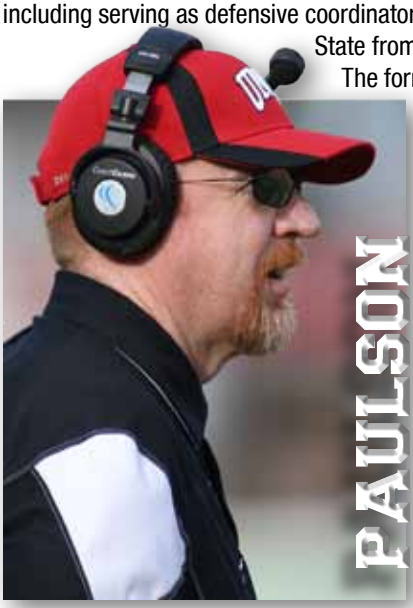
Assistant Head Coach
Linebackers

Kraig Paulson will oversee the team's linebacking corps in his fifth season as well as continuing as assistant head coach. He coached the Rebels' outside linebackers in 2012 after two years as defensive coordinator and defensive ends coach for the Rebels. In Las Vegas, his players have included 2012 First Team All-Mountain West honoree John Lotulelei, who is now a linebacker for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars.

Before coming to Las Vegas, Paulson spent six seasons as defensive coordinator at Montana while also coaching the ends. He also served as UM's assistant head coach for five years.

Paulson's 2009 defense led the FCS in turnovers gained with 37, including bringing in a stunning 26 interceptions in 2009. He mentored star defensive end Kroy Biermann, who earned the 2007 Buck Buchanan Award, given annually to the FCS defensive player of the year. Biermann was a fifth-round pick in the 2008 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

Paulson boasts two-plus decades of college coaching experience, including serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Utah State from 2000-02.



The former Montana fullback actually had two stints coaching at his alma mater. He worked with the linebackers, defensive line and secondary from 1987-99, moving from graduate assistant to defensive coordinator during his first stop in Missoula.

Paulson earned his bachelor's degree in education from Montana in 1987. He and his wife, Jody, have three sons: Keogh, Elias and Rokken.

ASSISTANT COACHES

TIMM ROSENBACH

Offensive Coordinator Quarterbacks

Former NFL quarterback and veteran college coach Timm Rosenbach (pronounced "ROSE-en-bah") was named UNLV offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2013. Under his guidance, the Rebel offensive attack set multiple records, including scoring the second-most points in school history and shattering the program mark for first downs in a game and a season. Senior quarterback Caleb Herring came off the bench and turned in the most efficient season ever at UNLV, completing a record 63% of his attempts for 2,718 yards, 24 touchdowns and just five interceptions.

An experienced play-caller, Rosenbach worked for five years on the staff at his alma mater, Pac-12 Conference program Washington State, and another season overseeing the offense at New Mexico State.

Rosenbach spent 2012 overseeing the offense at the University of Montana and also served three seasons coaching at Eastern Washington, including running an offense that led the nation in yards and scoring in 2001.

As a player, Rosenbach was a record-breaking Pac-10 quarterback and finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1988. He was a first-round pick in the 1989 supplemental NFL draft, taken by the then-Phoenix Cardinals. In his second season with the club, Rosenbach started all 16 games and threw for more than 3,000 yards and 16 touchdowns. Injuries cut short his professional playing career, which also included a season playing for Hamilton in the CFL.

Rosenbach earned his bachelor's degree in social sciences from WSU in 2005. He is married to former professional volleyball player Kim Exner and the couple has two daughters.

ERIC HOHN

Strength & Conditioning Coach

Eric Hohn (pronounced "HONE") is in his first year at UNLV as strength and conditioning coach for the football program but he is no stranger to college football. Hohn's three decades of experience include stints as an assistant at the University of Washington before serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at California from 1991-97 and then in the same capacity at Weber State from 1998-2012.

A member of the University of Oregon track and field team from 1980-82, Hohn graduated with his bachelor's degree in physical education from the school in 1982 and was a part-time assistant coach at his alma mater for two years. He then served as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of South Carolina while earning his master's degree before heading to Seattle to join the Huskies.

"Eric is someone with great experience and knowledge and is tremendously accomplished in this profession," head coach Bobby Hauck said. "I've known him for many years and while we were at Montana and Washington, you always knew facing the teams he worked with at Weber State and Cal meant physical battles on the field."

Education:
Oregon, 1982 –
bachelor's degree in physical education
South Carolina, 1987 –

SIGNEE PROFILES

2014 UNLV SIGNING CLASS

UNLV football head coach Bobby Hauck's fifth recruiting class at the school included five late signees that bolstered the total to 21 future Rebels.

"I like our class," Hauck said back in February. "I feel good about the ability of the junior college transfers to help us immediately and the freshmen to work their way up the depth chart and provide long-term success."

The list is made up of 11 high school players and 10 junior-college players. The group includes the program's one midyear JC signee but not the grayshirts that signed previously and joined the program in January as true freshmen.

The class is tilted toward defense with 11 defensive players, seven on offense, two placekickers and one labeled as an Athlete. The full breakdown is as follows: 5 DL, 4 DB, 2 OL, 2 QB, 2 RB, 2 LB, 2 PK, 1 TE and 1 ATH.

"Our numbers on the defensive line are depleted so we needed to replenish there both with high school and JC players," Hauck said. "Big guys are hard to find but we signed a bunch we really like."

The group consists of student-athletes whose hometowns are spread among five states and one territory: nine are from California, four are from Nevada, three are from Texas and Arizona and one from both Washington and American Samoa.

"As always, we try to keep the locals home and I think we did that to a large degree this year as a large portion of our class is from the state of Nevada. We offered nine of the 11 players in the Valley that signed at FBS schools and got four of them. We also continue to have great success in recruiting in the state of Texas."

SEASON REVIEW

2013 SEASON IN REVIEW

The Rebels' triumphant 2013 season, which included returning to the world of bowls after suffering through more than a dozen years sitting at home during the holidays, didn't exactly get off to a great start. Indeed, a hopeful bunch traveled to Big Ten country for a Thursday meeting in Minnesota for GAME ONE to mark the program's first ever venture to the Land of 10,000 Lakes. The season's opening drive proved fruitful as the new offense under first-year coordinator Timm Rosenbach hummed early, rolling into the end zone with a 26-yard touchdown by returning standout running back Tim Cornett. Incumbent starting quarterback Nick Sherry would actually complete a school-record 35 passes on the day but the Gophers won going away -- 51-23 -- by scoring three touchdowns on defense and special teams.

Tim Cornett rushed for the second most career yards in Mountain West history.

The following week marked the low point of the season as Sherry followed up his record performance by completing just six passes and a couple of pick-sixes that contributed to an ugly 53-14 loss to Arizona in GAME TWO. After opening vs. Big Ten and Pac-12 opponents in successive weeks, UNLV needed to turn the tide against Central Michigan in GAME THREE as the Chips came to town for the first time since the 1994 Las Vegas Bowl. After quickly falling behind 21-0, that much-needed boost did come -- in the form of a senior quarterback who had lost his starting job to Sherry and changed positions the previous season after his own struggles. In fact, Caleb Herring came off the bench vs. CMU to spark the Rebels to 31 straight points and ignited a four-game winning streak with his efficient arm and effective leg work. In spurring a tie of the biggest comeback in Rebel history, Herring broke Randall Cunningham's 29-year-old team record for completion percentage by hitting on 24 of 28 attempts (85.7 %) for 266 yards and three scores en route to grabbing Mountain West Player of the Week honors.

GAME FOUR saw the first meeting between UNLV and FCS rep Western Illinois since 1977. The Rebels rolled past the Leathernecks 38-7 and notably became the first game in history that the team had zero penalties marked off.

Winning a third straight outing for the first time in a decade and more importantly, halting a 23-game road losing skid, UNLV emerged from a wild GAME FIVE in Albuquerque, 56-42. Three of Herring's four TD passes went to Devante Davis, who was named MW Player of the Week after posting 10 catches for 164 yards against New Mexico. Tied at 35 at halftime, the Rebels outscored the Lobos 14-0 in the final quarter, including a game-sealing 75-yard jaunt to the end zone by Cornett to give the senior 179 yards and a trio of touchdowns. The 56 points were the most for the visitors since 1986 and gave UNLV a conference-opening win on the road for the first time since 1994.

Following a bye week, the halfway point of the season was filled with drama as another high-scoring affair took shape in GAME SIX. After a scoreless first quarter, UNLV and Hawai'i each went on spurts. The Rebels led 30-17 heading into the fourth before the Rainbow Warriors rallied with 20 points of their own to take a 37-36 lead. With 1:39 remaining, Herring directed his team on a 51-yard drive in 12 plays to get senior place-kicker Nolan Kohorst into position to be the hero. The Las Vegas native, who would leave as UNLV's all-time leading scorer, coolly nailed a 44-yard field goal as time expired to notch his first game-winner and the Rebs had won four straight in the regular season for the first time since 1984.

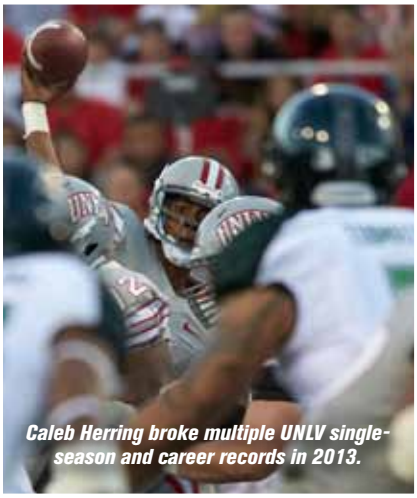
2013 SEASON IN REVIEW



Caleb Herring broke multiple UNLV single-season and career records in 2013.

Head Coach Bobby Hauck's squad next took on 17th-ranked Fresno State for the first time since both were members of the WAC in 1997. The powerful Bulldogs broke UNLV's winning streak, 38-14, in GAME SEVEN but Cornett ran for 49 yards to become his school's all-time rushing king, besting Mike Thomas' record set way back in 1973.

The annual Battle for the Fremont Cannon was staged on Nevada Day Weekend for the first time ever in GAME EIGHT and it was a historic trip for the Rebels, who captured the famed prize from the Pack in Reno for only the second time and first time since 1979. UNR led 16-14 heading into the final quarter but Cornett ran in one touchdown and then Davis took in his second of the day to take control in the 27-22 final. Herring's 335 yards and three TDs through the air helped his team break a series-record eight-game losing streak to its arch rival and win in Mackay Stadium for the first time in a decade.

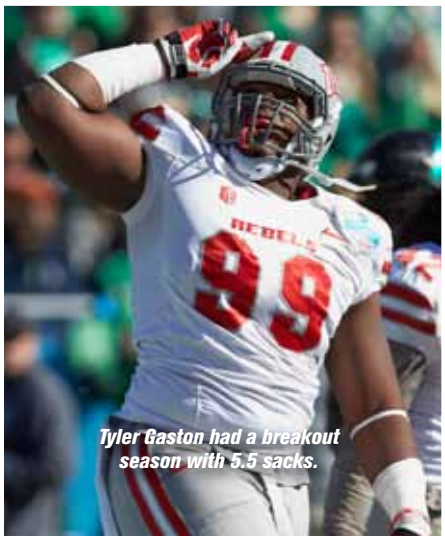
Trailing San Jose State 24-3 at halftime in GAME NINE, UNLV twice rallied on Homecoming to draw within a touchdown but couldn't come all the way back in a 34-24 loss that snapped a three-game home winning streak.

The Rebels hosted Utah State the following week and led for much of the night in GAME 10. After the Aggies took a late 28-24 lead, UNLV drove to the USU 16-yard line and sent four pass attempts into the end zone for the win but was denied by the eventual MW Mountain Division champions.

After two frustrating attempts to gain bowl eligibility went for naught, UNLV headed to a stadium in which it had won exactly once and would be faced with record-low temperatures to boot in GAME 11 at Colorado Springs. However, the Rebels laughed off the stunningly bad conditions and powered past Air Force 41-21 behind a defining game from Cornett on ESPNU. It was 11 degrees at kickoff with a wind chill of -7 early on but the snowy field could not slow down the rushing king as he posted a career-high 220 yards and four touchdowns.

Nolan Kohorst scored more points than any Rebel in history.

Now eligible for a bowl for the first time since 2000, UNLV ultimately needed one more victory to earn one of the league's six post-season slots. Two days after Thanksgiving, GAME 12 saw San Diego State score first -- and then give up 31 straight points to the hosts in a home-finale rout. Herring was masterful, tossing a school-record tying five touchdowns, while Davis also tied a record by catching four of them as part of his 171-yard night. His 14 touchdowns for the season also shattered the Rebel record set by Sam "Disco Kid" Greene in 1979. The 45-19 final meant UNLV hit the seven-win mark for only the third time since 1984 and won five MW games for the first time ever while tying for third place in the West Division.



Tyler Gaston had a breakout season with 5.5 sacks.

Hauck's team was rewarded for its efforts with an invite to the Heart of Dallas Bowl on New Year's Day to play in the historic Cotton Bowl Stadium vs. North Texas in GAME 13. The Rebels got on the board first and found themselves in a tight battle late in the third quarter when the Mean Green ripped off 21 straight points to win going away 36-14 and hand UNLV its first bowl defeat in four all-time outings.

UNLV had more than two players earn spots on the All-Mountain West first and second teams for the first time since 2006 as Cornett, Davis and junior offensive tackle Brett Boyko all made the second team. With seven Rebels earning honorable mention, the 10 total UNLV players on the list marked the most for the program since seeing 11 cited in 2003 when the conference was just nine teams deep. Also, a total of three UNLV offensive linemen were part of an official league list for the first time since a trio of blockers was honored by the Big West Conference way back in 1994.

No Rebels were taken in the NFL Draft but Cornett, who finished second in conference history with 3,733 rushing yards, signed a free-agent deal with the Arizona Cardinals, while WR Jerry Rice Jr. inked a deal with the Washington Redskins.

The Rebels returned to a bowl game for the first time since 2000.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. -- For the second consecutive year, UNLV and Minnesota kicked off the college football season on a Thursday night in August.

The Rebels dominated the stat sheet by out-gaining the Gophers in total offense by nearly 100 yards, winning the time-of-possession battle and producing the game's only 100-yard rusher. But UNLV's errors came when its defense was not on the field.

The Gophers scored three times without needing an offensive snap. Minnesota opened the second half with a 98-yard kickoff return by Marcus Jones, blocked and returned a field goal attempt 51 yards and Brioen Boddy-Calhon picked off Nick Sherry and returned it for an 89-yard score to give the Gophers a 37-13 advantage early in the fourth quarter.

The Rebels opened the game strong, as they drove down the field methodically before Tim Cornett scored on a 26-yard run. Cornett would finish the game with 80 yards on 20 carries. Nick Sherry led the passing attack, as he completed his first seven passes and nine of his first 10.

The Gophers would kick a field goal and use a Philip Nelson 48-yard scamper to take a 10-6 lead in the second quarter.

UNLV recaptured the lead when Sherry connected with Devante Davis for a 34-yard touchdown on fourth down. Sherry finished with 226 yards through the air and had a school-record 35 completions on 50 attempts. Seven of those completions were directed toward Davis, who finished with 77 yards receiving.

From there Minnesota stole the show, going on a 42-10 run to end the game. The Rebels lone touchdown in that time came when Sherry found Taylor Barnhill for a one-yard score.

UNLV's backup running back Shaquille Murray-Lawrence made a splash in his first collegiate game. The junior college transfer ran for 108 yards on just four carries and also served as a returner on the kick return team.

LAS VEGAS -- The Arizona Wildcats used a high-powered running attack and took advantage of costly UNLV Rebel errors to claim a 58-13 victory at Sam Boyd Stadium.

The Wildcats struck early as they outscored UNLV 45-6 by halftime. Starting quarterback B.J. Denker rushed for the first two Arizona touchdowns, a 35-yard run and a four-yard run, in the first quarter. He finished with 60 yards on the ground on 16 attempts and also went 8-of-21 for 81 yards through the air.

Ka'Deem Carey sat out the first stanza, but led the Wildcats with 171 yards and two touchdowns in his 2013 debut.

The Rebels were led on the ground for the second consecutive week by junior college transfer Shaquille Murray-Lawrence, who rushed four times for 82 yards, including a 79-yard touchdown run. Tim Cornett added 62 yards on 15 carries.

Sophomore quarterback Nick Sherry had a tough time getting in rhythm, as he finished 6-for-22 with two interceptions, both of which were returned for touchdowns. Sherry was replaced in the second half by senior Caleb Herring.

One bright spot in the first half came when Sherry connected with Devante Davis, who out sprinted past the Arizona defense on his way for a 69-yard touchdown. Davis finished the game with three receptions for 84 yards.

Defensively the Rebels were led by sophomore safety Peni Vea, who recorded 12 total tackles. Seniors Tim Hasson and Frank Crawford finished with 11 and 10 tackles, respectively, and Crawford recovered the first fumble of the season for UNLV.

The Rebels held their opponent for less than 100 yards passing for the second straight week, as Arizona finished with 81 yards through the air.

LAS VEGAS -- The UNLV Rebels scored 31 unanswered points to overcome a 21-point deficit Saturday night at Sam Boyd Stadium to defeat Central Michigan, 31-21. The victory was the first of the season for the Rebels (1-2).

At the 6:30 mark of the second quarter, Central Michigan had outgained the Rebels 233-33 in total yards, while taking its 21-0 lead. From that point, the Rebels outgained the Chippewas 378-145 in total yards, and 31-0 on the scoreboard.

Quarterback Caleb Herring replaced Nick Sherry on the team's third possession of the game, and seized control of the offense to complete 24 of 28 passes for 266 yards and three touchdowns to lead the charge.

Herring's .857 completion percentage broke Randall Cunningham's record from 1974, when he posted a .808 completion percentage against Idaho State.

The Rebels' balanced attack finished with 122 yards rushing and 289 passing yards.

UNLV wideout Devante Davis hauled in seven passes for 140 yards and caught all three of Herring's touchdown strikes, while running back Tim Cornett rushed for 94 yards and a touchdown.

Herring's second touchdown pass to Davis, a 42-yard play, lifted the Rebels into a tie at 21 with 2:58 left in the third. Nolan Kohorst's 34-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave UNLV the lead, and Herring's 12-yard strike to Davis extended the advantage to the final 10-point margin with 6:40 remaining.

In overcoming the 21-0 first-half deficit, the Rebels tied the program's record for biggest comeback, with a 1976 rally against Nebraska-Omaha.

Freshman Cooper Rush, making his first start for the Chippewas (1-2), completed 23 of 46 pass attempts, one touchdown and two interceptions. Running back Saylor Lavallii rushed for 65 yards and scored twice.

LAS VEGAS -- UNLV football recorded its biggest victory since 2010 with Saturday night's 38-7 blowout win over Western Illinois.

Using a balanced attack on offense, UNLV (2-2) outgained the Leathernecks 424-338. It was also the first time in school history the Rebels played an entire game without being flagged for an infraction.

Quarterback Caleb Herring, who started for the first time this season, completed 14 of 20 pass attempts for 140 yards and one touchdown while also rushing for 57 yards.

Five running backs starred for the Rebels, led by Tim Cornett, who had 83 yards on 12 carries and two touchdowns, while Adonis Smith added a pair of scores.

The Rebels opened their scoring attack on their second possession, in the first quarter, when Cornett capped a 46-yard drive with a three-yard run for the score. Though the Leathernecks (2-2) came right back with a 10-play drive to UNLV's 20, they failed to convert on fourth down. UNLV returned the favor with 10 plays of its own and placekicker Nolan Kohorst booted a 43-yard field goal to give the Rebels a 10-0 advantage.

UNLV extended its lead to 17-0 in the second quarter, when Herring hooked up with tight end Jake Phillips on a 27-yard touchdown strike.

The Rebels wasted no time after halftime, scoring on their first two drives. UNLV took the opening kickoff and drove 75 yards in eight plays over 3:13, culminating with Cornett's 26th career TD as a Rebel.

UNLV's defense stepped up for the team's next big play, as linebacker Tani Maka recorded his fourth career interception on Western Illinois' next possession. Two plays later, Smith ran for his first touchdown as a Rebel to put UNLV ahead 31-0 with 8:00 left in the third quarter.

WIU quarterback Trenton Norvell hit wideout Joey Borsellino with an 11-yard scoring strike in the third quarter for the Leathernecks' only score, which snapped a 62-point run by the Rebels over five quarters of play.

The victory marked the first time UNLV won back to back games under fourth-year head coach Bobby Hauck, and the first time since doing it twice in 2008. The Rebels reached at least the .500 mark after four games for the first time since opening the 2009 campaign 2-2.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. -- The UNLV duo of quarterback Caleb Herring and receiver Devante Davis hooked up on three touchdowns to overcome New Mexico's record-setting ground attack in the Rebels' 56-42 victory Saturday.

Herring threw a career-high four touchdowns, including the game-winner to Davis with 4:46 remaining. UNLV running back Tim Cornett also had three touchdowns, going for a career-high 179 yards on 25 carries.

The Lobos had three rushers gain more than 100 yards for the first time in school history, led by Kasey Carrier's 192 yards on 25 carries.

Carlos Wiggins had three touchdowns while combining for 176 yards rushing and receiving while quarterback Cole Gautsche completed the 100-yard trio with 108 yards on 18 carries.

The teams combined for 1,149 total yards, including 749 at halftime, when it was tied 35-35.

At one point in the first half, UNLV scored touchdowns on five consecutive possesions, including two drives that lasted under a minute (:10 & :53).

The Rebel defense dug in during the second half, allowing only seven points on 140 yards after allowing the Lobos to score 35 points in the first half.

Davis finished with a career-high 10 catches for 164 yards while Herring went 24-34 for 293 yards.

With the win, UNLV (3-2/1-0) exceeded its win total from each of the past three seasons and won three consecutive games for the first time since 2003.

The Rebels also broke a 23-game road losing streak.

The 56 points scored by UNLV tied for the eighth most in a game and were the most since beating New Mexico State 58-42 in 1986. It was only the fourth time in school history that the Rebels scored least 50 points on the road and the most since beating the Aggies.

LAS VEGAS -- UNLV senior placekicker Nolan Kohorst kicked a 44-yard field goal as time expired to give the Rebels a 39-37 win over Hawaii Saturday night at Sam Boyd Stadium.

It was the Green Valley High School graduate's first career game-winning field goal.

With 1:39 remaining, UNLV (4-2, 2-0 Mountain West) started on its own 26-yard line and drove 51 yards in 12 plays to get Kohorst in position to win the game with five seconds left on the clock.

Hawai'i helped on the final drive. On third and 10 at the UNLV 45, the Rebels were held to a three-yard gain, but Trayvon Henderson was flagged for a facemask penalty to give UNLV irst down at the UH 37.

Kohorst was swarmed by his teammates, while most of the 22,755 in attendance went crazy as the Rebels won a fourth consecutive game for the first time since 2000. They've also won three straight and five of six at home against the Warriors (0-6, 0-4).

Trailing 36-17, the Warriors scored three consecutive touchdowns, including a 44-yard strike from Sean Schroeder to Chris Gant with 1:44 left in the game.

UNLV quarterback Caleb Herring completed 34 of 56 pass attempts for 385 yards and one touchdown, while Tim Cornett rushed for 162 yards on 29 attempts and two touchdowns.

Herring, the nation's leading pass-percentage quarterback, broke UNLV's record of consecutive pass attempts without an interception (183) -- while tying the Mountain West mark -- before throwing his first pick of the season on the last play of the first half.

The Rebels also broke the Mountain West record with 113 offensive plays.

Hauck wasn't shy with the confidence in his team in the first quarter, twice going for it on fourth down, and failing both times. On their first possession of the game, the Rebels drove to Hawaii's 2-yard line in 11 plays and Herring failed to punch it in on fourth-and-goal when he was sacked for a loss of eight yards.

Nonetheless, after UNLV's defense stopped the Warriors on their next drive, it drove into their red zone and failed to convert a fourth-and-1 from Hawaii's 18 to turn it over on downs a second consecutive time.

The Warriors opened the scoring when Tyler Hadden drilled a 31-yard field goal at the 12:46 mark of the second quarter. UNLV answered on its next two drives with a pair of Kohorst field goals to take a 6-3 lead. The teams exchanged touchdowns over the next three possessions -- Hawaii scoring twice and UNLV once -- as the Warriors took a 17-13 lead into halftime.

FRESNO, Calif. -- All that momentum UNLV built with a strong finish to the first half was squandered quickly in the third quarter.

Derek Carr threw his fourth touchdown pass of the game to Davante Adams after UNLV wasted a prime scoring chance on the opening possession of the second half and No. 17 Fresno State rolled to a 38-14 victory on Saturday night.

The Rebels (4-3, 2-1 Mountain West) ran the opening kick of the second half back to the Bulldogs 45 but failed to get a first down on that drive. Carr responded with an 11-play, 84-yard drive capped by the 37-yard TD pass to Adams that gave the Bulldogs (6-0, 3-0) a 35-14 lead.

Carr and Adams set the tone with a 75-yard touchdown on the opening play of the game to the delight of a crowd that included a few hundred former players on hand for a pregame celebration. The Bulldogs equaled their start in 2001 when Carr's older brother, David, led the team to six straight victories to open the season.

Caleb Herring threw one TD pass and Tim Cornett ran for 49 yards to break Mike Thomas' career school rushing record with 3,158 yards before leaving with a lower-body injury. But UNLV had its four-game winning streak snapped. The Rebels hadn't won four straight during the regular season since Randall Cunningham was the quarterback in 1984.

Fresno State scored touchdowns on the first four drives of the game starting with the deep pass from Carr to Adams just nine seconds into the game.

After converting a fourth down on the second drive, Carr connected with Adams again from 27 yards out for another score and Josh Quezada's two-yard TD run on a rare play when Carr took the snap from under center gave the Bulldogs a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter.

But UNLV fought back to make it 28-14 at halftime. Shaquille Murray-Lawrence scored on a 73-yard burst up the middle for the Rebels' first score. Herring threw a 13-yard TD pass to Marcus Sullivan late in the half after Fresno State receiver Isaiah Burse threw an interception after taking a lateral from Carr.

RENO, Nev. - The Fremont Cannon will be changing colors for the first time in nine years.

Caleb Herring passed for 335 yards and three touchdowns and UNLV defeated upstate rival Nevada, Reno 27-22 on Saturday.

The victory snapped an eight-game Wolf Pack winning streak in the series and gave the Rebels possession of the Fremont Cannon for the first time since 2004.

Tim Cornett rushed for 122 yards and a touchdown and Devante Davis had eight catches for 121 yards for the Rebels (5-3 overall, 3-1 Mountain West).

Herring completed 29 of 42 passes and his 11-yard strike to Davis with 5:54 left in the game put the Rebels up 27-16.

Nevada, Reno responded with an eight-play, 72-yard drive that culminated with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Cody Fajardo to Aaron Bradley to cut the lead to 27-22 with 3:25 left.

The Wolf Pack defense forced the Rebels into a 3-and-out on the ensuing possession, but could not complete the comeback as Fajardo's pass to Jerico Richardson on a fourth-and-four, with 1:28 left, fell incomplete. UNLV was then able to run out the clock.

Fajardo was 24 of 40 for 357 yards and two touchdowns for UNR (3-5 overall, 2-3 MW).

He had a 61-yard scoring pass to Richy Turner that put the Wolf Pack ahead 13-7 with 5:52 left in the first half.

UNR also had three first-half field goals of 40, 22 and 43 yards - to lead 16-14 at halftime.

Herring had touchdown passes of 44 and 11 yards to Davis, and also hooked up with Maika Mataele from 16 yards.

The Wolf Pack had 13 penalties for 105 yards, lost one fumble and was intercepted once. UNLV was penalized three times for 35 yards and lost one fumble.

LAS VEGAS -- San Jose State's Jarrod Lawson ran for a career-high 187 yards and a touchdown as San Jose State topped UNLV 34-24 on Saturday.

San Jose State (5-3, 4-1 Mountain West) raced to an early 14-0 lead with touchdowns on its first two possessions. Lawson then added a 31-yard score in the second quarter as the Spartans took a 24-3 lead into halftime.

UNLV (5-4, 3-2) cut the lead to 24-17 late in the third but Thomas Tucker ran for a 37-yard touchdown with 10:49 to play to extend SJSU's lead to 31-17. UNLV once again cut the deficit to seven with eight minutes remaining but the Spartans responded with a drive that lasted over five minutes and culminated with a field goal.

Caleb Herring led the Rebel second half charge and finished 26-of-39 for 265 yards and two touchdowns through the air and added 55 yards on 14 carries and another score on the ground.

The UNLV defense held the Spartan passing attack in check, allowing only 180 yards to a team that came into the game averaging just under 350 yards through the air per game. Rebels Frank Crawford and Peni Vea each picked off future NFL Draft Pick quarterback David Fales, giving hime 10 interceptions on the year.

SJSU finished with 312 yards rushing while UNLV finished with 86 yards on the ground.

LAS VEGAS -- UNLV missed out on its second straight opportunity to become bowl eligible with a 28-24 loss to Utah State (6-4, 5-1 MW) Saturday night.

The Rebels drove the field in 16 plays in a last-ditch effort for a comeback, and got as close as the Utah State 16-yard line, but fell short when quarterback Caleb Herring's final four pass attempts fell incomplete.

The final two chances for the Rebels were back corner fades to Devante Davis, who finished the game with three catches for 84 yards, but the passes sailed out of the end zone.

Herring completed 17-of-39 pass attempts for 252 yards while throwing two touchdowns and one interception. His completion percentage of 44 percent was a season low.

Bruce Natson's eventual game winning touchdown came with 3:56 left in the game, and capped an 11-play, 82-yard drive to give Utah State the lead 28-24.

The 12-yard score came from the wildcat formation, which the Aggies ran extensively Saturday night. Natson finished with 71 yards on nine carries with two touchdowns.

With the win, the Aggies became bowl eligible for the third consecutive season.

Freshman quarterback Darell Garretson, who made his third career start, led Utah State's offensive attack, completing 16-of-28 pass attempts for 288 yards and one touchdown strike while registering a 155.3 quarterback rating.

UNLV sacked Garretson four times, a season high for the Rebels and the most for the team since Sept. 8, 2012, against NAU.

Running back Tim Cornett ran for 115 yards on 29 attempts and one touchdown. Cornett, who moved up to No. 2 in UNLV's all-time all-purpose yardage list, became only the second running back to rush for 100 yards against the Aggies' 19th-ranked rushing defense this season.

Cornett reached the century mark for the 15th time in his career, putting him only two behind UNLV's all-time leader, Mike Thomas.

The Rebels (5-5, 3-3) suffered their second consecutive home loss, and remained one win shy of becoming bowl eligible.

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. -- Tim Cornett rushed for a career-high 220 yards and four touchdowns and UNLV became bowl eligible for the first time since 2000 with a 41-21 win over Air Force on Thursday night.

Temperatures in the single digits, a wind chill below zero and a snow-covered field didn't slow Cornett, UNLV's all-time leading rusher. He crossed the 1,000-yard mark for the second consecutive season while notching his 16th career 100-yard game.

The Rebels (6-5, 4-3 Mountain West) defeated the Falcons (2-9, 0-7) for the second consecutive year, their first back-to-back wins over Air Force since 2000-01.

Air Force cut the Rebels' lead to 33-21 with 5:18 remaining in the third, but Cornett's 46-yard touchdown run with 2:03 left in the fourth put the game out of reach.

UNLV quarterback Caleb Herring added first-quarter touchdown runs of 1 yard and 6 yards to help the Rebels build a 27-0 lead. Devante Davis had six catches for 75 yards to become just the seventh Rebels receiver to reach 1,000 yards in a single season.

Anthony LaCoste led Air Force with 75 yards on 15 carries.

The Rebels racked up a season-high 330 yards rushing and capitalized on a pair of early Air Force miscues. A blocked punt and fumble recovery in the first quarter set up UNLV touchdowns.

It was all UNLV early on. Trent Langham blocked David Baska's punt attempt after Air Force's opening drive stalled 2:29 into the game, and the Rebels' David Greene returned the ball to the Falcons' 30-yard line.

Cornett scored from 22 yards out two plays later, and UNLV led 6-0. The Rebels turned favorable field position into another first-quarter score with 4:29 remaining on Herring's 1-yard touchdown plunge.

Herring made it 20-0 Rebels four plays later on a diving touchdown run with 1:47 remaining, and Cornett's 7-yard touchdown run with 9:47 left in the second quarter gave UNLV a 27-0 lead. UNLV's three first-quarter scoring drives took a total of 3:59.

LAS VEGAS -- Caleb Herring threw five touchdowns and ran for another in UNLV's 45-19 dominating win over San Diego State Saturday night.

Herring finished his final game at Sam Boyd Stadium 20-of-30 for 270 yards, with 66 more yards on the ground.

UNLV fell behind only 41 seconds into the game when San Diego State connected on a 39-yard pass from Quinn Kaehler to Colin Lockett resulting from a double-reverse flea-flicker.

The defense held San Diego State, who entered the game averaging 166.3 rushing yards per game, to only 88 rushing yards.

The Aztec's 1,000 yard rusher, Adam Muema, was held to only 19 yards on 12 carries.

UNLV went on to score 31 unanswered points through the 11:36 mark of the third quarter, seized control of the game and cruised to the win.

The Rebels (7-5, 5-3 Mountain West) outgained San Diego State 402-327, while their 45 points was their second biggest output of the season. UNLV was a perfect 6-0 this season when scoring 30 or more points.

Herring's five touchdown passes were not only a career-high, but also tied a school record for most in a single game.

Herring's No. 1 target on the night, Devante Davis, finished with eight receptions for 171 yards and four touchdowns. Herring also connected with Marcus Sullivan on a 32-yard TD strike.

Davis' career-high four touchdown receptions tied him for the most in a single game in UNLV history, while his 14 touchdowns in 2013 set a new single-season record for the Rebels.

Much like throughout the season, Herring was able to complete passes to Davis even through tight coverage.

Placekicker Nolan Kohorst kicked six extra points and one field goal and became UNLV's all-time leading scorer with 245 career points.

The Rebels are one of seven Mountain West Conference schools to become bowl eligible this season.

The victory marks UNLV's first seven-win season since 2000, when the Rebels were 8-5 under former head coach John Robinson. That was the last time the Rebels appeared in a bowl game.

The seven wins are also more than UNLV coach Bobby Hauck won over his first three years combined with the Rebels, who won two games in each of the past three seasons. The victory gave the Rebels five Mountain West Conference wins for the first time ever.

DALLAS, Texas -- It's certainly been a long road for UNLV. This time, traveling more than 1,200 miles to the Heart of Dallas Bowl presented by PlainsCapital Bank and a de facto home game for North Texas proved to be too much for a rising Rebel program, which lost 36-14 on Wednesday afternoon at Cotton Bowl Stadium.

North Texas (9-4), located just 44 miles north of Dallas on Interstate 35E, opened up a game that was tied 7-7 at intermission with physical play on both sides of the ball. The Mean Green scored 22 fourth-quarter points to hand UNLV (7-6) its first bowl loss in four appearances.

UNLV had been up the challenge on the road three times this year, winning as many road contests in 2013 as it had in the previous eight seasons combined. That helped a 2-11 team become one that won seven games, making one of the nation's biggest turnarounds.

Things looked good early on for the Rebels (7-6). Absent from a bowl game for 13 years, UNLV put points on the board on its opening possession.

Pinned deep after a North Texas punt, the Rebels took the ball 95 yards, slicing through the Mean Green defense on just eight plays. Senior quarterback Caleb Herring was a perfect 5-for-5 for 59 yards on the drive and found Marcus Sullivan in the end zone for the score.

After forcing a quick 3-and-out, UNLV's Keith Whitely muffed the ensuing punt, giving the Mean Green possession on the Rebels' 42-yard line. It was a momentum changer, as eight plays later Antoinne Jimmerson scored on a one-yard touchdown run to tie the score, 7-7, with 1:47 remaining in the first quarter.

UNLV never got back on track offensively, and didn't score again until Jerry Rice Jr. hauled in a Herring pass with 4:56 left in the game that cut North Texas' lead to 28-14.

The Rebels averaged better than 30 points per game on the year and hadn't been held under 24 points in any of its past five contests.

For the game, North Texas outgained UNLV 397-262. Tim Cornett, the Rebels' all-time leading rusher, was bottled up (33 yards on 12 carries) all afternoon.

North Texas also converted 10 of 17 third-down opportunities, including 9 of 11 chances in the second half. That kept the UNLV defense on the field for more than 35 minutes.

Houston native Devante Davis, one of the nation's leading pass catchers, registered 10 catches for 96 yards in his return to the Lone Star State. Herring finished 22 of 41 with two touchdowns and an interception in his final collegiate game.

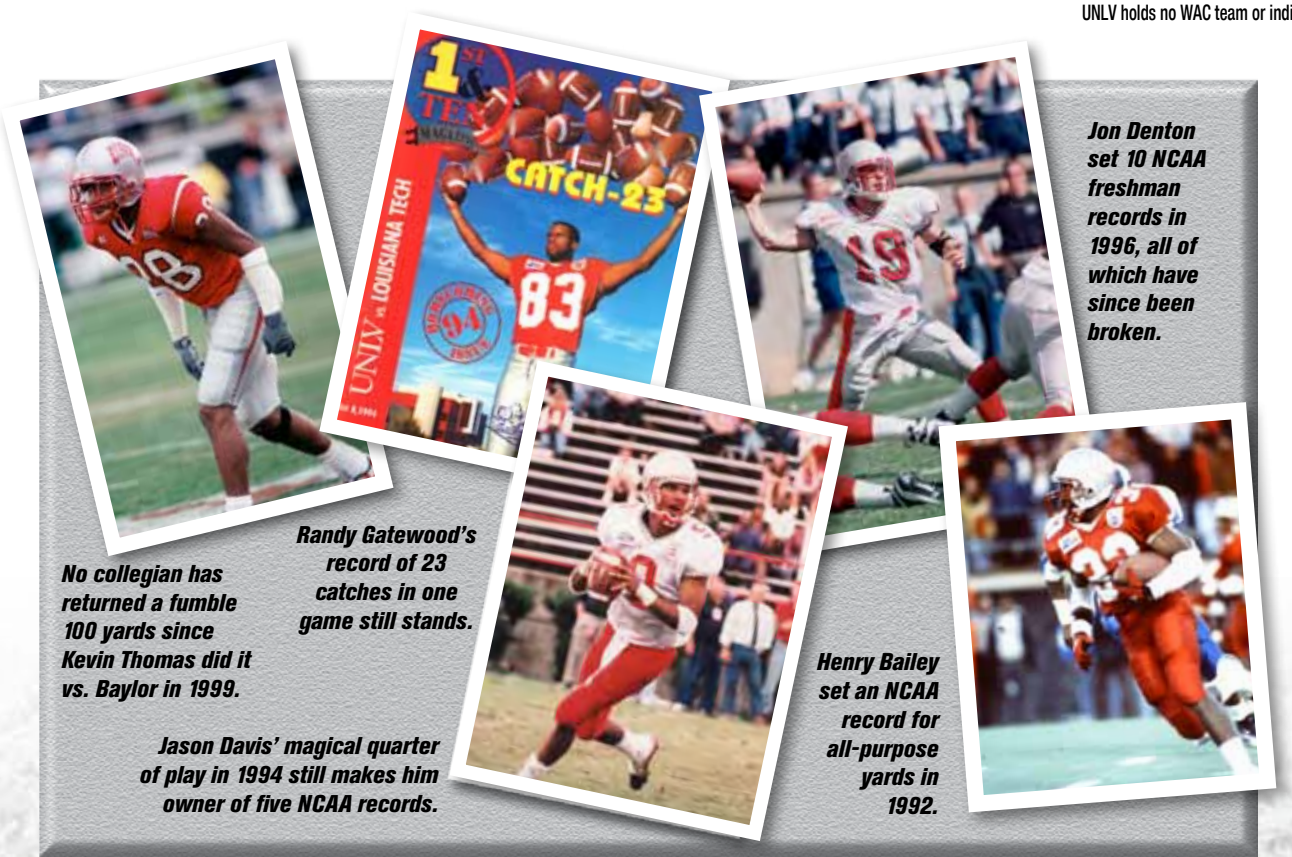
WESTERN ATHLETIC

UNLV holds no WAC team or individual records.



No collegian has returned a fumble 100 yards since Kevin Thomas did it vs. Baylor in 1999.

Randy Gatewood's record of 23 catches in one game still stands.

Jason Davis' magical quarter of play in 1994 still makes him owner of five NCAA records.

Henry Bailey set an NCAA record for all-purpose yards in 1992.

Jon Denton set 10 NCAA freshman records in 1996, all of which have since been broken.

BILL IRELAND
(1968-72)

A pioneer in Rebel Athletics, Bill Ireland was UNLV's first football coach and helped shape the school's entire athletic department. After posting four winning seasons in his five years on the field, including an 8-1 record in his first campaign, Ireland stepped down to serve as UNLV's Director of Athletics from 1973-1980. He went on to serve as the executive director of the UNLV Hall of Fame and as an executive consultant for the Las Vegas Bowl. Ireland passed away July 31, 2007, at the age of 80.

RON MEYER
(1973-75)

The owner of the best career winning percentage among UNLV coaches, Ron Meyer led the Rebels to the 1974 NCAA Division II playoffs after an undefeated regular season. After three straight winning campaigns, Meyer left for SMU then an NFL coaching career that included stops in New England and Indianapolis. Meyer spent a season as head coach of the CFL's Las Vegas Posse in 1994 and led the Chicago XFL franchise in 2001.

Originally called Las Vegas Stadium, the current home of the Rebels lacked neighbors when it opened in 1971.

ALL-TIME RESULTS

TONY KNAP
(1976-81)

Serving longest as the head man for the Rebels, Tony Knap came to UNLV from Boise State in 1976. In his six seasons, Knap led the Rebels to an NCAA Division II playoff appearance in 1976, a move to the Division I level in 1978 and a stunning road upset of No. 8 Brigham Young in 1981, perhaps the greatest game in school history. Still the winningest coach in UNLV history, Knap retired to his home state of Washington where he passed away in 2011.

HARVEY HYDE
(1982-85)

Leading the Rebels into conference play for the first time was four-year coach Harvey Hyde. Then called the Pacific Coast Athletic Association, the Big West welcomed UNLV in 1982. Hyde also led the Rebels to their first bowl appearance when UNLV downed Toledo 30-12 in the 1984 California Bowl. Hyde is currently a sports radio personality in both Las Vegas and Southern California.

WAYNE NUNNELY
(1986-89)

A UNLV running back in 1971-72 under Coach Bill Ireland, Wayne Nunnely is the only former Rebel player to become a head coach at the school and went on to post a winning season in his first year at the helm. Nunnely built a long career as a highly respected NFL assistant and retired from the Denver Broncos in 2012.

JIM STRONG
(1990-93)

Former Notre Dame offensive coordinator Jim Strong became the sixth head coach in UNLV history in 1990 and led the Rebels for four seasons. Strong's 1992 team, featuring two future NFL linemen, posted the program's first winning season since 1986 with a 6-5 record. Strong currently is a businessman in the Midwest.

JEFF HORTON

A former coach of arch-rival UNR, Jeff Horton took over UNLV in 1994 and led the Rebels to a stunning victory over the Wolf Pack, a share of the league title and a Las Vegas Bowl title in his first season. After moving on to coach at Wisconsin, Horton became an assistant coach with the NFL's Detroit Lions before moving on to the University of Minnesota, where he served as interim head coach for four games in 2010. He is now an assistant coach at San Diego State.

JOHN ROBINSON
(1999-2004)

A former coach at USC and the NFL's L.A. Rams, John Robinson took over UNLV in 1999. A year later he earned MW Coach of the Year honors with an 8-5 record and Las Vegas Bowl victory. He later became the first Rebel coach to also serve as athletics director at the same time (2002-03). After retiring with the second most wins in school history, he continued his career in broadcasting. In 2009 he became the first Rebel head coach or player voted into the College Football Hall of Fame and in 2011 was a member of the inaugural class of the Las Vegas Bowl Hall of Fame.

MIKE SANFORD
(2005-2009)

Mike Sanford came to the Rebels from Mountain West rival Utah after he had coordinated the Utes' record-setting offense for two years under Urban Meyer. A former quarterback at USC, Sanford replaced his former college coach, John Robinson, at UNLV on Dec. 6, 2004. He spent five seasons in Las Vegas, which tied for the third longest coaching stint in Rebel football history. He is currently the head coach at FCS school Indiana State.

BOBBY HAUCK
(2010-SA)

Bobby Hauck was hired as UNLV's 10th head coach in history on Dec. 23, 2009. He came to Las Vegas after compiling a stunningly successful record at FCS power Montana. Hauck became the second former Big Sky Conference coach to take over the Rebels, following former Boise State leader Tony Knap in the late 1970s.

REBEL BOWL HISTORY

Still the winningest team in UNLV Division I history at 11-2 overall, the 1984 squad earned the school its first bowl bid and went on to beat Toledo 30-13 in the California Bowl.

The first Big West team to ever win seven league games, Coach Harvey Hyde's Rebels lost only a close game at Hawaii and to 10th-ranked SMU in the regular-season finale, the night Randall Cunningham's No. 12 jersey was retired at halftime.

Not surprisingly, UNLV swept the league's postseason honors with Offensive Player of the Year Cunningham, Defensive Co-Player of the Year Aaron Moog and Coach of the Year Hyde.

UNLV took on an 8-2-1 Mid-American Conference Champion Toledo squad in the fourth California Bowl in front of a national ESPN audienceand the Rebels won impressively, 30-13.

UNLV broke the game open with 17 third-quarter points led by Cunningham's passing and the running of a freshman from Fresno named Elbert "Ickey" Woods. Cunningham's 270 yards through the air helped him earn MVP honors. Just a few months later the lanky QB became a second-round choice of the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1985 NFL Draft. Woods went on to lead the nation in rushing in 1987 with 1,658 yards before "shuffling" off to Cincinnati as a second-round pick in 1988.

The team reunited in 2012 as it was inducted into the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame.

California Bowl MVP Randall Cunningham threw for two touchdowns and ran for another.

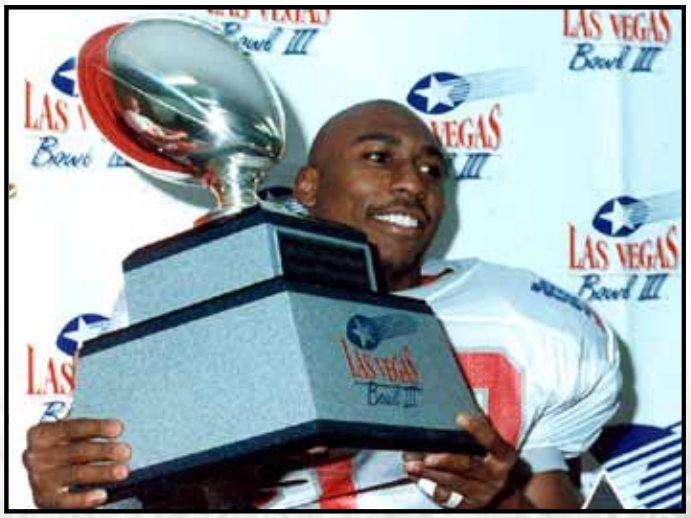
Appearing in its first bowl game in a decade, UNLV blasted Mid-American Conference opponent Central Michigan in the second meeting of the year between the two clubs.

Playing it up for a national television audience on ESPN, the Rebels (7-5), who racked up 589 yards in offense (the most by any '94 bowl team) jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead over the Chippewas (9-3). Not even two minutes had passed in the first quarter when Henry Bailey, the Rebels' career receiving leader, exploded for a 46-yard touchdown reception from Jared Brown. The strike was the first of four UNLV touchdowns longer than 30 yards on the night. After the Chips pulled to 14-10, the Rebel offensive machine continued to roll and UNLV pulled away for good on a 15-yard fumble return for a TD by defensive end Keith Washington.

UNLV eventually cruised to a 52-10 lead before clearing the bench. Las Vegas Bowl III MVP Bailey, soon to be a Pittsburgh Steelers draftee, rushed for 79 yards on seven carries with three TDs, and accumulated 101 yards receiving with one score. Sophomore RB DeJohn Branch had a sparkling performance, carrying the ball 13 times for 125 yards, and Brown finished the game 11-for-21 for 195 yards with two TDs and 32 yards rushing. UNLV coach Jeff Horton was named the Big West Conference Co-Coach of the Year for turning a 3-8 team in '93 into league and bowl champions in his first season.

The 1994 team was inducted into the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame in 2010.



Henry Bailey's four touchdowns helped him run away with MVP honors.

REBEL BOWL HISTORY

Playing before a national ESPN2 audience and a Las Vegas Bowl-record 29,113 fans, UNLV (8-5) won its fourth straight for the first time since 1984 and moved to 3-0 all-time in bowl games with a surprisingly one-sided 31-14 victory over Arkansas (6-6), the Rebels' first over a team from the powerful Southeastern Conference.

UNLV quarterback Jason Thomas earned MVP honors by completing 12 of 17 pass attempts for 217 yards and three scores without an interception as well as rushing for 32 yards on 10 carries. Thomas' favorite target was Nate Turner, who ended his career with 126 yards on eight catches – all in the first half. Jeremi Rudolph gained 92 yards on 14 carries and Kevin Brown had 78 on 13 attempts. Arkansas, which was fresh from two consecutive victories over ranked SEC opponents to become bowl eiligible, opened the scoring with the only points of the first quarter. UNLV answered with a Thomas-to-Turner 19-yard pass, which was the first TD given up by the Razorbacks in 11 quarters. Two minutes later the Hogs used Robby Hampton's second scoring throw of the game to take a 14-7 lead. UNLV, however, struck again to square things before halftime with a five-year Turner TD. Things stayed tied until with just over two minutes left in the third, Thomas found Troy Mason with a stunning 54-yard TD strike that was the second longest in bowl history. After a Dillon Pieffer field goal put UNLV up 24-14, the Razorbacks elected to go for it on fourth and 10 from the Rebel 37 with more than 12 minutes remaining. The UNLV defense forced an incompletion and the inspired Rebels eventually closed their shocking 24-point scoring run with an 18-yard Brown run. The Rebels out-gained the bigger Hogs, who had defeated seven straight non-conference opponents and were 6-0 vs. MW teams, 476 to 298. UNLV also held its opponent to under 200 yards rushing (115) for the 12th time in 2000. The Rebels, who moved to 2-0 in Las Vegas Bowls, earned their most victories in a season since 1984 and finished the season a perfect 6-0 at Sam Boyd Stadium. Head Coach John Robinson improved to 8-1 in bowl games during his career, which made him the winningest bowl coach in NCAA D-I history with a percentage of .889. "This is particularly gratifying because our guys were at their best," Robinson said during the post-game celebration.

It's certainly been a long road for UNLV. This time, traveling more than 1,200 miles to the Heart of Dallas Bowl presented by PlainsCapital Bank and a de facto home game for North Texas proved to be too much for a rising Rebel program, which lost 36-14 on Wednesday afternoon at Cotton Bowl Stadium.

North Texas (9-4), located just 44 miles north of Dallas on Interstate 35E, opened up a game that was tied 7-7 at intermission with physical play on both sides of the ball. The Mean Green scored 22 fourth-quarter points to hand UNLV (7-6) its first bowl loss in four appearances.

UNLV had been up the challenge on the road three times this year, winning as many road contests in 2013 as it had in the previous eight seasons combined. That helped a 2-11 team become one that won seven games, making one of the nation's biggest turnarounds.

Things looked good early on for the Rebels (7-6). Absent from a bowl game for 13 years, UNLV put points on the board on its opening possession.

Pinned deep after a North Texas punt, the Rebels took the ball 95 yards, slicing through the Mean Green defense on just eight plays. Senior quarterback Caleb Herring was a perfect 5-for-5 for 59 yards on the drive and found Marcus Sullivan in the end zone for the score.After forcing a quick 3-and-out, UNLV's Keith Whitely muffed the ensuing punt, giving the Mean Green possession on the Rebels' 42-yard line. It was a momentum changer, as eight plays later Antoinne Jimmerson scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to tie the score, 7-7, with 1:47 remaining in the first quarter.

UNLV never got back on track offensively, and didn't score again until Jerry Rice, Jr., hauled in a Herring pass with 4:56 left in the game that cut North Texas' lead to 28-14.

The Rebels averaged better than 30 points per game on the year and hadn't been held under 24 points in any of its past five contests.

For the game, North Texas outgained UNLV 397-262. Tim Cornett, the Rebels' all-time leading rusher, was bottled up (33 yards on 12 carries) all afternoon.

UNT also converted 10 of 17 third-down opportunities, including 9 of 11 chances in the second half. That kept the UNLV defense on the field for more than 35 minutes.

Devante Davis' 10 receptions against UNT were the most by a Rebel in a bowl game.

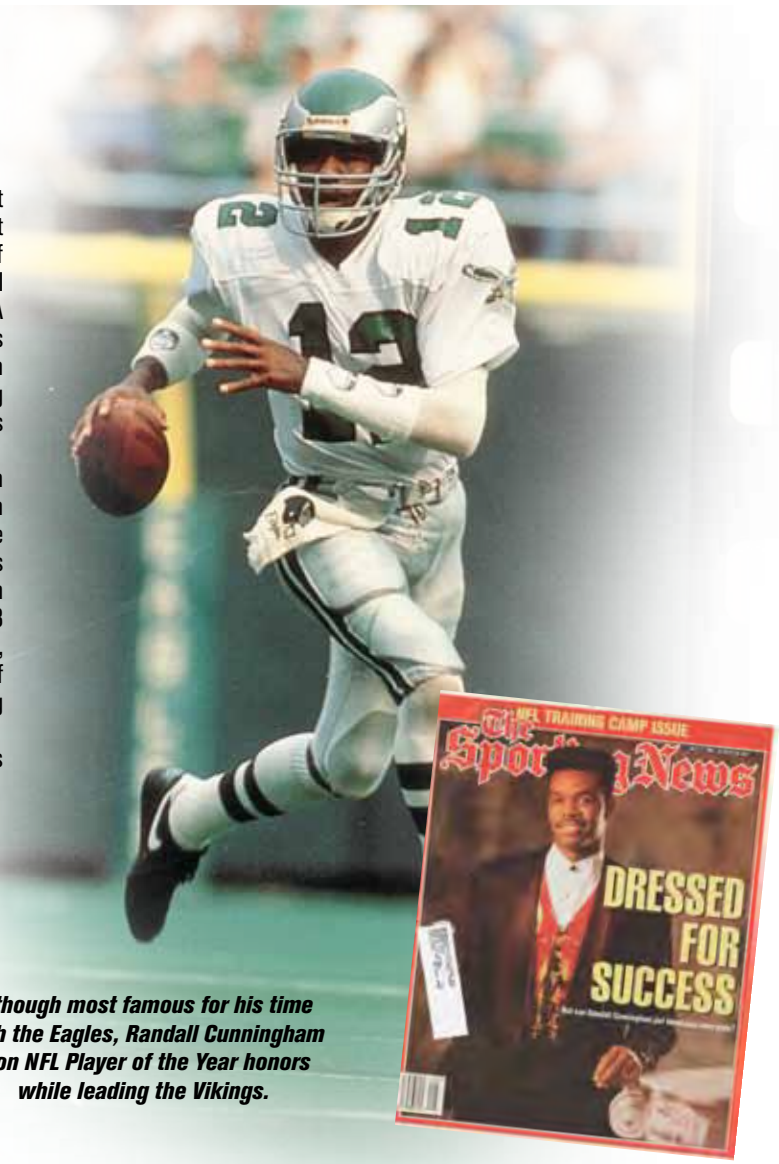
CUNNINGHAM HEADS UNLV'S NFL ALUMNI

Still the career passing and punting leader at UNLV, Randall Cunningham left his school as its most accomplished player and went on to become one of the top quarterbacks in NFL history. Before Michael Vick and Donovan McNabb there was Randall. A national figure who broke the racial barrier at his position, Cunningham augmented his cannon arm and booming punting leg by redefining the running ability of a pro quarterback and left as the league's all-time rushing QB with 4,928 yards.

Rising to stardom with the team that drafted him 37th overall in 1985 - Philadelphia - Cunningham went on to play 11 seasons with the Eagles, three with the Vikings, one with the Cowboys and his final two with the Ravens. The four-time Pro Bowl invitee won Most Outstanding Player honors in the 1989 game after leading the NFC to a 34-3 blowout. Joining Johnny Unitas as the only three-time winners of the Bert Bell Award, which goes to the league's top player, Cunningham was also named the NFL Player of the Year in 1998 after leading Minnesota to the league's best record and engineering what was the highest scoring offense in history.

The Las Vegas resident retired, symbolically, as an Eagle, in 2002 but still ranks in the top 50 in league annals in passing yards, TDs and completions.



Although most famous for his time with the Eagles, Randall Cunningham won NFL Player of the Year honors while leading the Vikings.

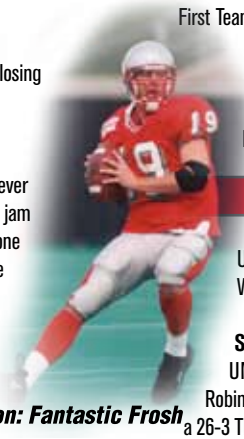
August 31
The Rebels open the season before a school-record 106,212 fans at Tennessee's Neyland Stadium -- the 12th-largest crowd ever for an on-campus facility. The Vols, led by QB Peyton Manning and ranked No. 2 in the polls, are the highest ranked team to ever face UNLV and defeat the Rebels 62-3.

September 7
UNLV hosts Air Force in its first WAC game, losing to the Falcons 65-17.

September 14
40,091 red-clad fans, at the time the most ever to watch a team sporting event in the state, jam Sam Boyd Stadium and its temporary end-zone seating to watch the Badgers defeat the Rebels 52-17.

November 16
UNLV earns its first WAC victory with a stunning upset of visiting SDSU, 44-42. QB Jon Denton continues his assault on the NCAA record books by passing for a national freshman-best 503 yards.



Denton: Fantastic Frosh

November 23
Although the Rebels fall just short, 31-28, at San Jose State, Jon Denton finishes his amazing rookie year owning 10 NCAA freshman offensive records and 10 other school marks, including most TD passes (25) and most yards (3,591) in a season.

1997

October 4
The Rebels meet traditional power USC for the first time in football and lead in the fourth quarter before succumbing in front of 48,404 at the storied Coliseum 35-21. QB Jon Denton reaches 5,000 career passing yards in his 17th game (the second-fastest to reach the mark in Div. I-A history).

October 18
UNLV plays in its first overtime game, falling 20-17 at San Diego State.

1998

November 21
Senior Joe Kristosik is a bright spot during the school's first-ever winless season. The Las Vegas native finishes the year leading the nation in punting with a 46.2-yard average and soon is voted the Rebels' first consensus First Team All-American.

December 3
UNLV makes national news with the hiring of John Robinson as the school's eighth head football coach.

1999

July 1
UNLV officially joins the new, eight-team, Mountain West Conference.

September 2
UNLV opens the Robinson Era with a 26-3 Thursday night victory at North Texas, which breaks a school-record 16-game losing streak and 26-game road-losing skein.

Robinson's dream in the desert began with the 1999 season.

September 25
The school plays its first MW game and is drubbed by visiting Utah 52-14.

October 9
UNLV earns its first MW victory by upsetting heavily favored Wyoming 35-32.

2000

June 28
UNLV football boasts two preseason All-Americans for the first time in school history as punter Ray Cheetany (first team) and CB Kevin Thomas (second) are tabbled by Athlon.

September 16
Led by a school-record 31 points in the second quarter alone, UNLV breaks a school-worst 12-game home losing streak, 38-0 over North Texas, for the program's first shutout in 17 years and first at SBS since 1978.

UNLV FOOTBALL HISTORY

1968-73 | 1974 1977-82 | 1975-76 | 1983-96 | 1997-2005 | 2006-PR

September 30
ABC-TV comes to town for the first time in history to broadcast the Rebels' shocking 34-13 win over Air Force, which also marked the first UNLV home victory vs. a MW opponent.

October 7
UNLV snaps a five-game series losing skid by blasting UNR 38-7 in front of the biggest crowd ever to see the Battle for the Cannon waged in Las Vegas.

October 28
The first-ever Rebels vs. Rebels football game sees UNLV push host Ole Miss into overtime before the SEC power pulls out a 43-40 heart-stopper. Jeremi Rudolph's 17-yard scoring run on the last play of regulation caps off a 99-yard TD march and goes down as one of the most exciting highlights in school history.

December 2
Three different Rebels break the 100-yard rushing mark in the same game for the second time in school history as UNLV holds off host Hawaii, 34-32, to secure a Las Vegas Bowl bid and its first winning season since 1994. Tailback Jeremi Rudolph becomes the first Rebel back to rush for 1,000 yards since Ickey Woods in 1987.

December 21
UNLV improves to 3-0 in bowl games and becomes the only school in Div. I-A with a perfect record with at least three games played by stunning Arkansas 31-14 before an ESPN2 audience and a bowl-record 29,113 fans. The Rebels finish with the most wins (eight) since 1984. QB Jason Thomas earns MVP honors and John Robinson moves to 8-1 all-time in bowl games, making him the winningest coach in NCAA postseason history (.889).

2001

August 11
UNLV receives 12 points to appear in the Associated Press preseason poll for the first time ever at No. 37. The Rebels later are ranked by Sports Illustrated for the first time at No. 25 while Football Digest slots the team at 24. Quarterback Jason Thomas also joins the preseason lists, showing up as a top 20 candidate for the Heisman Trophy according to Lindy's (10th), Phil Steele's (7th) and CBS Sportsline (18).

August 30
Playing its earliest game in history, the Rebels' immediate rematch with Arkansas unfolds on a humid Thursday night in Little Rock before a national ESPN audience. UNLV dominates the game, holding the Razorbacks to a school-record 114 yards of offense. However, a late fumble allows the Hogs to score a shocking last-minute game-winning touchdown in a 14-10 final.

September 7
The highest ranked team to come to Sam Boyd since 1994, No. 16 Northwestern breaks UNLV's six-game home winning streak on ESPN, 37-28, in the first Friday game for the Rebels since 1979.

September 14
What was supposed to be UNLV's second consecutive Friday date on ESPN is canceled following the national tragedies of September 11. The game, vs. Colorado State, is postponed until October 20 and the Rebels instead have an unwanted bye week along with all FBS schools.

September 29
The second-biggest crowd to ever watch the Rebels play at Sam Boyd (32,601) braves 100-degree temperatures to see UNLV fail in its best attempt yet to defeat a ranked team at home as No. 20 BYU rallies late to win 35-31 on ABC-TV.

November 17
The Rebels stun Air Force 34-10 before 31,074 at Falcon Stadium and an ESPN+Plus audience, which marks the first time in school history that every game is televised in a season.

2002

April 21
UNLV breaks a 27-year-old school record by having four players selected as part of the NFL Draft, including second-rounder Anton Palepoi going higher than any Rebel since Ickey Woods in 1988.

August 31
The Rebels open the season on ESPN2 by welcoming No. 25 Wisconsin before what was the largest crowd in Nevada history for a team sporting event (42,075). The Badgers lead 27-7 with 7:41 remaining in the fourth quarter when the power (and the lights and national TV broadcast) goes out. The head coaches -- meeting on the darkened field -- agree to call the game over and make the score final as the famous UW band entertains the rowdy crowd.

September 14
UNLV travels to Oregon State to play in the first regular-season college football game to be broadcast by cable's Superstation TBS in longer than a decade. The Beavers dominate and pick up their first win over the Rebels in five all-time meetings, 47-17.

October 5
UNLV downs rival UNR to hand head coach John Robinson his 200th career victory, which includes a successful stint with the NFL.

October 19
Powered by two fourth-quarter defensive touchdowns, UNLV shocks BYU 24-3 to hand Cougar head coach Gary Crowton his first-ever loss at Edwards Stadium. BYU's scoring output is its lowest at home since 1971.

November 2
Quarterback Jason Thomas' school-record three first-quarter rushing touchdowns help UNLV win its first overtime game in five tries with a wild 49-48 final over Wyoming.

November 16
Despite losing to Air Force 49-32, UNLV shatters all seasonal home attendance records, including averaging 27,582 fans in six games at Sam Boyd.

Robinson earned his 200th career coaching victory while leading the Rebels.

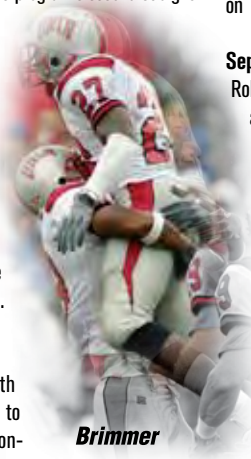
December 10
Sophomore strong safety Jamaal Brimmer is the unanimous Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year after the Las Vegas native leads the league with 17 tackles for loss.

2003

August 29
Avenging a blowout loss at Toledo one year previous, UNLV opens the season on a special Friday ESPN game and uses two late touchdowns to cap off a 28-18 win over the Rockets in the Rebels' third consecutive opener on national TV.

September 13
UNLV goes to Madison, Wis., and upsets the 14th-ranked Badgers 23-5 in front of the largest crowd to ever see the Rebels win a game (78,043) as the home team goes without an offensive touchdown for the first time since 1995. The win is the program's second straight over a ranked opponent.

September 16
FS Jamaal Brimmer is named FWAA National Defensive Player of the Week following perhaps the most dominating performance in school history vs. the Badgers: a 55-yard fumble return for a TD, 11 tackles, 2 quarterback sacks, a forced fumble and his first two career interceptions.



Brimmer

October 4
Downing rival UNR for the fourth straight season, the Rebels move to 4-1 overall to finish their best non-conference record in school history. The following day, UNLV rises to a best-ever 30th in the USA TODAY/ESPN coaches poll (35th AP).

November 4
Jamaal Brimmer is announced as one of a dozen semifinalists for the Jim Thorpe Award, which is annually awarded to the nation's top defensive back.

December 12
Jamaal Brimmer is named First Team All-America by College Football News. Brimmer is also the consensus MW Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season.

2004

January 10
John Robinson serves as head coach of the 79th Annual East-West Shrine Game in San Francisco. Two Rebel players also take part, including RB Larry Croom, who rushes for 63 yards and two TDs on just nine carries.

January 17
RB Larry Croom sets a school record by playing in his third postseason all-star game (Blue-Gray, East-West & Hula) and scores at least one TD in each.

September 5
Playing on a Sunday for the first time ever, UNLV opens the season on national television for a program-record fourth straight year by taking on No. 14 Tennessee before the biggest crowd in school history (108,625). UNLV, which wears its red jerseys on the road for the first time, scores first but falls 42-17 despite Dominique Dorsey's 121 yards on 18 carries to go with 78 kickoff return yards.

September 11
Robinson's Rebels return to the scene of their biggest win and play ranked teams in consecutive weeks for the first time ever in front of 82,071 at Camp Randall Stadium. No. 21 Wisconsin blocks a field-goal attempt that would have given the Rebels a halftime lead and returns it for a stunning score. The Badgers eventually post their first offensive TD vs. UNLV in a span of 10 quarters en route to an 18-3 victory.

October 2
Spoiling the return of UNR coach Chris Ault to the series, UNLV keeps the Fremont Cannon for a school-record fifth straight year by routing the Pack 48-13 before the second biggest crowd (27,596) to watch the rivalry game in Las Vegas. The Rebels, who go 8-8 in the red zone, score their most points in regulation under John Robinson.

October 8
Playing on ESPN2, UNLV's defense forces five turnovers en route to beating BYU in Provo for the second consecutive time. The Rebels improve to 5-1-1 in games played on Friday.

November 6
Playing overtime for the third time in the last seven meetings with Wyoming, UNLV falls to the Pokes for the first time in six years in a wild, three-OT shootout, 53-45, which goes down as the highest-scoring MW game in history. The Rebels play past a first OT for the first time and score four more points in these extra periods (14) than the previous six such games combined (10). The Rebels' 22 penalties are just two short of the NCAA record.

November 20
The John Robinson Era closes after the legendary coach walks off the sidelines at the end of 27 pro and college seasons. Despite the 21-3 loss to San Diego State, he leaves as the school's second-winningest coach with 26 wins in six years. LB Adam Seward's 13 tackles give him a school- and MW-record 435 in his career. Earvin Johnson catches a pass in his Rebel-record 41st straight game as he moves past Damon Williams as the program's all-time leader in receiving yards (2,604). Dominique Dorsey wins the MW rushing title with 1,261 yards.

December 6
Mike Sanford is hired away from MW champion Utah to become the ninth head coach in UNLV history.

December 7
Senior DB Jamaal Brimmer becomes UNLV's fourth two-time All-American in history and first since 1984 when he is honored by The Sporting News (2nd Team) and AP (3rd Team). He goes on to become the third Rebel ever to play in the Senior Bowl as UNLV places at least one player in five postseason all-star games.

2005

September 5
Playing on a Monday for the first time ever, UNLV opens on national television for a school-record fifth straight year by traveling to New Mexico for an ESPN2 Labor Day special. Mike Sanford becomes the first head coach in college history to successfully challenge an officials' call using the new replay system and the move helps the Rebels nearly rally to victory in a 24-22 heartbreaker.

September 10
Sanford earns his first win as a head coach when kicker Sergio Aguayo boots a 41-yarder against Idaho for the first game-winning field goal for UNLV since 1992.

Senior DE and Las Vegas native Leon Moore becomes the third Rebel gridder in four years to be named a community service All-American when he earns one of only 11 spots on the prestigious AFCA Good Works Team.

October 8
Sergio Aguayo kicks two 52-yard field goals in the fourth quarter, including one with 13 seconds remaining, to give UNLV a 13-10 win over SDSU.

2006

December 5
WR Ryan Wolfe is named MW Freshman of the Year after a record-setting rookie campaign. He is the first freshman to lead the league in receiving yards (911) and shatters multiple school and conference marks. Wolfe later becomes the first Rebel to be named to the Football Writers Freshman All-America Team.

2007

September 22
UNLV shuts out a conference opponent for only the second time in history while also breaking an 11-year losing skid in league openers. Powered by Frank "The Tank" Summers' 190 rushing yards, the 27-0 victory was the first over Utah since 1979.

October 13
UNLV hosts its school-record third sellout of the season and the biggest-ever crowd to see it play a conference opponent at home when 38,026 watch BYU win 24-14. UNLV would break multiple attendance records on the year, including playing in front of an average crowd of 29,281.

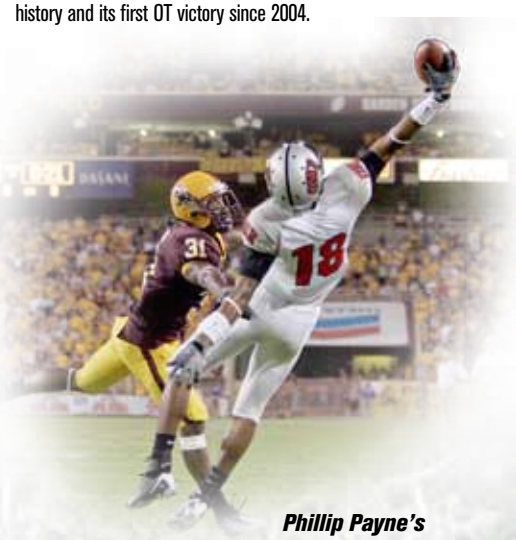
December 4
LB Beau Bell is named MW Defensive Player of the Year after leading the league with 126 tackles and five forced fumbles to go along with four interceptions. He would become the fourth Rebel ever invited to play in the Senior Bowl and be the first pick of the Cleveland Browns (fourth round) in the NFL Draft.

2008

January 8
OL Matt Murphy becomes UNLV's second player in as many years named to the Football Writers Freshman All-America Team.

January 12
UNLV football sends four representatives to the Hula Bowl all-star game: coaches Mike Sanford, Todd Berry and Vic Shealy and PK Sergio Aguayo.

September 13
In the first-ever meeting between the programs from neighboring states, UNLV travels to Tempe and stuns No. 13 Arizona State 23-20 when Malo Taumua blocks a Sun Devils' field-goal attempt in overtime. It marks the second-highest ranked win in program history and its first OT victory since 2004.



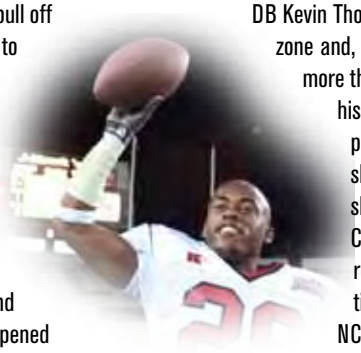
Phillip Payne's "The Catch"

REMEMBERING "THE WONDER OF WACO"

Did it really happen? Did 1999's most memorable play in college football really take place on a muggy Sept. 11 night in Waco, Texas? Did UNLV really pull off something never before done to start 2-0 on the road for the first time in 25 years? Yes. Yes. And, surprisingly – no make that inexplicably, yes.

UNLV made history by becoming the first team to win a college football game on the last play while trailing and without the ball. And it all happened because of one team's intention to run up the score and another team's refusal to allow it.

Host Baylor was leading the Rebels 24-21 with eight seconds left when it ran a rushing play to attempt to score again instead of simply downing the ball to end the game. After Bears running back Darrell Bush was stood up at the one-yard line by the Rebel defense, LB Tyler Brickell managed to force a fumble.



DB Kevin Thomas picked up the ball in the end zone and, with no time on the clock, raced more than the length of the field to score his team's winning points as UNLV prevailed 27-24. The shocking video showed up on everyone's highlight show while UNLV announcer Tony Cordasco's now-famous radio call repeatedly played across the nation. It was only the third time in NCAA FBS history that a fumble had been returned 100 yards (interestingly, the second time came against UNLV at Rice just four games previous in 1998.)

Tyler Brickell (No. 48) stripped Baylor RB Darrell Bush just outside the end zone.

Kevin Thomas (No. 28) picked up the fumble and sprinted 100 yards the opposite way.

UNLV becomes the eighth school in history to earn back-to-back overtime victories with a 34-31 home thriller over Iowa State. Omar Clayton hits freshman sensation Phillip Payne in the end zone during UNLV's first offensive play in the extra period to give the Rebs their first win in five career meetings with the Cyclones.

October 10
Casey Flair passes Damon Williams for first place on the UNLV career receptions list with a catch at BYU. Flair, who would become the first four-year player in school history to record at least one catch in every game of his career (47), would see his reception record stand for only weeks before teammate Ryan Wolfe takes over the top spot.

November 22
Despite a loss at SDSU that keeps the Rebels from going bowling, UNLV ties with Ohio State for the national lead in red-zone scoring at 95 percent, including earning points in its first 25 trips of the season inside the 20-yard line. Ryan Wolfe becomes UNLV's career leader in receptions and receiving yards.

November 25
Former Rebel RB Dominique Dorsey is named the CFL Special Teams Player of the Year while starring for the Toronto Argonauts.

2009

April 26
Frank "The Tank" Summers is a fifth-round pick by the defending Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers, making him the first Rebel running back to be selected in the NFL Draft since Ickey Woods 21 years earlier.

April 30
Former Rebel field leader and AD John Robinson becomes the first UNLV player or head coach to be voted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

October 24
With 11 catches in a win at New Mexico, Ryan Wolfe passes San Diego State's J.R. Tolver in becoming the MW's all-time leader in pass receptions. He eventually rises as high as 12th on the NCAA's all-time list with a final tally of 283 en route to becoming the program's third-ever three-time first team all-conference honoree.

December 23
Just two days before Christmas, newly hired athletics director Jim Livengood introduces Bobby Hauck as UNLV's 10th head coach in history. Hauck moves to the FBS after a record-setting seven-season run at the University of Montana and assembles an entirely new coaching staff.

2010

April 24
Rebel center Joe Hawley goes higher in the NFL Draft than any offensive lineman in UNLV history when he is selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the fourth round.

September 5
The Bobby Hauck Era opens with the Rebels meeting No. 12 Wisconsin in front of a throng of 31,107, which marked the 12th-largest home crowd in UNLV history. The No. 12 Badgers, who would go on to play in the Rose Bowl, score 24 unanswered third-quarter points to win 41-21.

September 25
Hauck's first UNLV win is a 45-10 blistering of New Mexico. The 35-point margin of victory is the biggest in Rebel history vs. a conference opponent.

October 9
UNLV plays a Big East Conference team for the first time, traveling to Morgantown to take on West Virginia.

December 4
UNLV's game at Hawaii ends the longest season in school history (13 regular-season games). The Warriors are the eighth team who spent time in the at least one of the two major polls to take on the Rebels in 2011. In fact, UNLV faces the nation's 19th-toughest schedule according to the Sagarin Ratings Index, which is the third-highest ever for a Non-AQ team.

2011

September 1
UNLV opens ESPN's season of coverage in Prime Time, traveling to play No. 11/10 Wisconsin as part of a special Thursday night matchup that was also shown in 3-D.

October 29
Las Vegan Phillip Payne breaks UNLV's career touchdown reception record with two scores in a 38-35 win over CSU. Payne's 25th career TD came on a 31-yard catch and score and move him past Henry Bailey, whose record had stood for 17 years.

November 5
The Rebels renew a long-dormant series, hosting Boise State for the first time since The Bicentennial. The fifth-ranked Broncos become the second-highest ranked team to play in Las Vegas and quarterback Kellen Moore sets the NCAA record for career victories with his 46th win.

2012

August 30
Kicking off a season that features 13 consecutive games without a bye, UNLV takes on Minnesota for the first time and goes three overtimes before falling to the Gophers. Quarterback Nick Sherry becomes the third freshman quarterback to start an opener in school history.

2013

September 14
Trailing by three touchdowns, the Rebels tie for the biggest comeback in school history in downing Central Michigan 31-21 and kick off the program's first four-game regular-season winning streak since 1984.

October 19
Tim Cornett's 49 yards at Fresno State move him past all-time Rebel rushing leader Mike Thomas, who finished with 3,149 yards in 1973-74. Cornett would go on to finish his career with 3,733, which ranks second in Mountain West history.

October 26
UNLV snaps an eight-year losing streak to UNR with a 27-22 victory that marks only the second time in history that the Rebels go into Reno and gain possession of the Fremont Cannon.

November 21
In what is by far the coldest game in UNLV history, Tim Cornett rumbles for a career-high 220 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Rebels to a 41-21 win at Air Force. Temperatures are in single digits but the wind chill dips well below zero.

November 30
Senior QB Caleb Herring throws for a school-record-tyjng five TDs and runs for another to pace UNLV's dominating 45-19 win over San Diego State. WR Devante Davis hauls in a record-tying four scores to shatter the UNLV season mark with 14 TDs through the air as the Rebels win five MW games for the first time.

January 1
Playing on New Year's Day for the first time, UNLV makes its first bowl appearance since 2000 in the Heart of Dallas Bowl at the historic Cotton Bowl. Despite a loss to North Texas, Caleb Herring breaks multiple season and career passing records, including completion percentage and lowest career interception percentage, while kicker Nolan Kohorst finishes as the program's all-time leading scorer with 247 points.

REBEL AWARD WINNERS

2007 MW DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

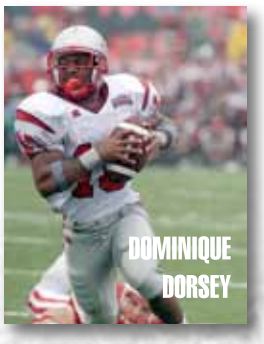
Beau Bell was a dominant force on his side of the ball in 2007, leading the league with 126 total tackles and five forced fumbles to go with 9.5 TFL and 3 sacks. He also led the team with four interceptions, including one at Wyoming that he returned for his first career TD. Bell became the first player in MW history to be named defensive player of the week three times in one season and left UNLV ranked second in all-time tackles with 320. The fourth Rebel ever to be invited to play in the Senior Bowl, Bell had eight double-digit tackle games as a senior and went on to become the top draft pick of the Cleveland Browns.

2006 MW FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

Ryan Wolfe's first game as a collegian saw him catch six balls for 160 yards, including a 71-yard touchdown sprint. The rookie later proved it was no fluke when he hauled in nine receptions for a MW-freshman-record-tying 176 yards vs. New Mexico. He also posted 108 yards vs. Air Force to close the campaign. Named First Team Freshman All-America by the Football Writers Assoc. of America, Wolfe was UNLV's first first team all-conference receiver since 1997 after becoming the first freshman to ever lead the conference in receiving yards (911), which ranked 26th nationally.

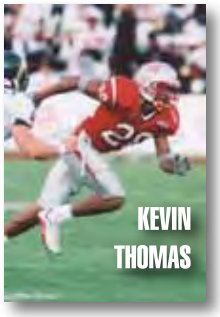
2002 & 2003 MW DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Hometown hero Jamaal Brimmer exploded onto the scene as a sophomore in 2002, including leading the MW with 17 tackles for loss and a squad-leading 5.5 QB sacks. Hence, he was the pick of both the coaches and media for league MVP honors in. One year later, his stats only improved as he led the league with six interceptions and four forced fumbles, which led to two key defensive scores. His eye-popping day in leading his team to an upset of Wisconsin got him national defensive player of the week honors and helped him become a semifinalist for the Thorpe Award and repeat as the consensus defensive MVP of his conference, despite being snubbed by MW coaches.



2001 MW FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

'Nique the Streak burst on to the scene with a scintillating 87-yard kickoff return vs. Northwestern in his first career attempt. Nine returns later he had broken the school record for season average at 36.4. Despite injuries, he displayed similar bursts at tailback and led the team with a 6.6-yard average, including TD runs of 56 and 40 yards. Against UNR, he set a league rookie record by gaining 180 yards on just 18 carries.



2001 MW DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

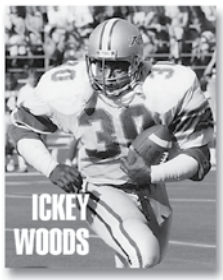
The school's first Division I All-American on his side of the ball, cornerback Thomas wrapped up perhaps the finest defensive career in Rebel history by breaking the school and MW single-season record for interceptions with seven, leading the nation in both interception return yardage and defensive scoring after taking three balls back for touchdowns while also pacing the league in passes defended with 17.

1998 WAC FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR (PACIFIC DIVISION)

A true Hawaiian warrior, Sunia became the first freshman in school history voted team captain and went on to start all 11 games at MLB. Named First Team Freshman All-America by Football News after leading his team with 115 total tackles, Sunia would gain 119 takedowns a year later but spend his final two seasons suffering from various injuries that would keep him from breaking UNLV's career tackle record.

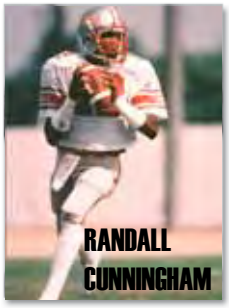
1996 WAC FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR (MOUNTAIN DIVISION)

Turning in arguably the best season by a freshman QB in FBS history, Denton shattered 10 NCAA freshman records and 10 other school marks for a team that won only one game. His nine 200-yard passing games included a school-record 503-yard performance vs. SDSU while his 3,591 yards and 25 TDs passing were NCAA single-season records for a frosh. On pace to shatter every conceivable UNLV passing record, the DENTON-ATOR would play only one more season before transferring to Eastern Kentucky.



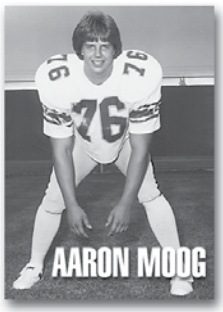
1987 PCAA OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Saving the best for last, Elbert "Ickey" Woods gained only 267 yards his first three seasons. As a senior he proceeded to lead the nation in rushing with 1,658 yards on 259 carries (6.4 YPC) and put in 10 touchdowns. He tied a school record with seven consecutive 100-yard games, including an incredible three straight over 200. The next spring he would become the highest drafted Rebel in history at No. 31 overall and go on to lead the Cincinnati Bengals to the Super Bowl behind his signature Ickey Shuffle.



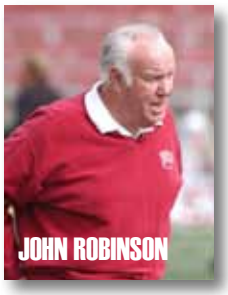
1983 & 1984 PCAA OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF YEAR

The first two-time league MVP for the Rebels, Randall Cunningham was an All-American punter and future NFL star at quarterback. The school's career passing leader threw for 2,545 yards, 18 TDs and only 8 INTs in 1983 and followed that up with 2,628 yards, 24 TDs and 10 INTs in a senior campaign that saw his team finish 11-2, including winning the PCAA title and California Bowl. The next spring, he would be drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles with the 37th pick and go on to a sterling 15-year pro career.



1984 PCAA CO-DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

The complete package along the line with superb speed, agility and aggressiveness, Moog led one of UNLV's best-ever defenses by totaling 63 tackles, including six for loss, six sacks and three pass breakups. The Rebels flirted with the national rankings by winning their first league title and bowl championship en route to an 11-2 overall mark.



2000 MWC CO-COACH OF THE YEAR

Just a year after taking over a program that posted its first-ever winless season, Robinson led the Rebels to their most wins since 1984 (8-5) and victory over Arkansas in the Las Vegas Bowl. Despite the amazing turnaround, Robinson shared his award with MW champion Colorado State leader Sonny Lubick.

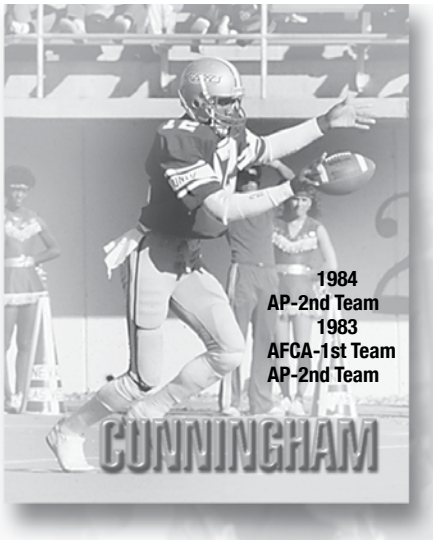
1994 BIG WEST CO-COACH OF THE YEAR

Under a first-year head coach, the Rebels rebounded from a 3-8 record to shock the league and earned a three-way tie for the Big West championship with a 5-1 record. Winning the tiebreaker, UNLV earned the Las Vegas Bowl bid and crushed Central Michigan 52-24. Horton shared his award with Pacific head man Chuck Shelton.

1984 PCAA COACH OF THE YEAR

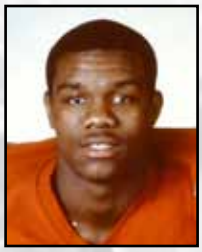
The most successful Rebel squad since moving to division one, Hyde's 1984 Rebels were 11-2 overall and 7-0 in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association. The season, which culminated with a 30-13 victory over Toledo in the California Bowl, also produced the school's first league coach of the year award.

REBEL ALL-AMERICANS

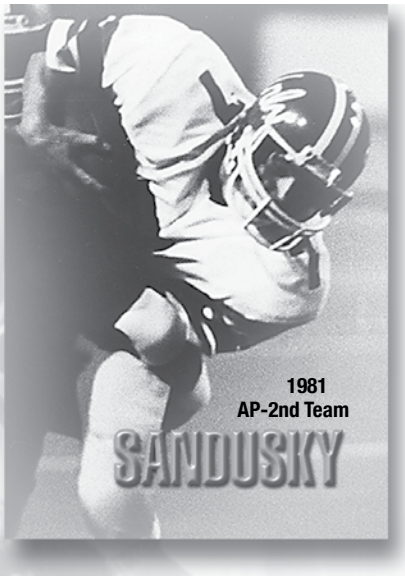


RANDALL CUNNINGHAM

Punter/Quarterback

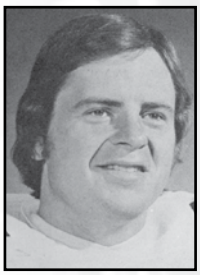


Although he is now known for being the NFL's all-time leading rushing quarterback, Santa Barbara, Calif., native Randall Cunningham (1981-84) won his national collegiate honors at his other position – punter. Still the Rebels' leader for punting average in a game (58.0), season (47.5) and career (45.6), Cunningham would own the second-best career punting average in college football history if he had punted just eight more times during his three years on the field. Touted as a Heisman Trophy candidate for his lethal combination of talent throwing, running and punting the ball, Cunningham was named first team All-America in 1983 (as well as honorable mention QB by AP) and second team in 1984, making him UNLV's first two-time All-American since the school moved to Division I in 1977. He would go on to be the 37th pick in the 1985 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles and was named the 1998 NFL Player of the Year as a Minnesota Viking QB.



JOE INGERSOLL

Defensive Lineman

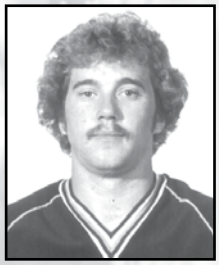


One of only four repeat All-Americans in UNLV history, Joe Ingersoll (1973-75) also was the first defensive player from the Rebels so honored. The Salt Lake City native played his freshman year at Utah before transferring to the desert and performing as a dominant defensive lineman for three years. As a junior, "Big Joe" led the undefeated 1974 UNLV team in tackles with 105, including four sacks, and was tabbed an AP Div. II Second Team All-American. As a senior, the terrific tackle earned first team honors from the AFCA and would go on to become a seventh round choice by the Miami Dolphins in the 1976 NFL Draft. In 1987, Ingersoll was a member of the inaugural UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame.

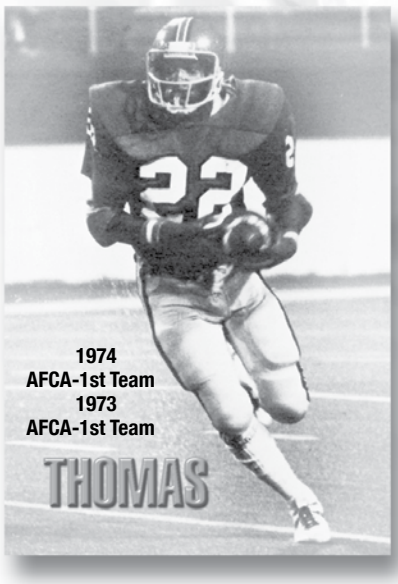
JIM SANDUSKY

Wide Receiver

Although his UNLV career was brief, San Diego native Jim Sandusky (1981) turned in the greatest receiving year in school history during his one year on campus.



Catching balls from the arm of QB Sam King as part of head coach Tony Knap's free-wheeling offense, Sandusky hauled in 68 passes (17 more than any previous Rebel) for 1,346 yards, which is still a school record. Despite playing in only 12 games, Sandusky remains tied for second at the school with eight career 100-yard receiving games. Such output would earn him Second Team All-America honors. However, with Knap retiring, Sandusky would transfer to San Diego State and go on to a distinguished career in the NFL and Canadian Football League.



MIKE THOMAS

Running Back

The bluest of Blue Chip recruits out of Greenville, Texas, Mike Thomas 1973-74, signed on with the University of Oklahoma but soon left Norman to ride his way West and right into the Rebel – and national – record books. His two seasons in Las Vegas were nothing less than stunning. As a junior in 1973, he scored a school-record 20 touchdowns and led the nation in rushing yards with 1,741, which was just 35 short of the then-NCAA single-season record. A year later, Thomas added 1,408 yards and 17 rushing scores to lead the Rebels to their only undefeated regular season and a Div. II ranking as high as No. 2 before losing in a national semifinal game. His still-UNLV-best career totals were 3,149 yards and 37 TDs born from a 6.6-yards-per-carry average. Both seasons resulted in AFCA First Team All-America nods for UNLV's first true football star to make him the only two-time first-teamer in Rebel history. Thomas would go on to complete a fine NFL career with the Washington Redskins and San Diego Chargers.

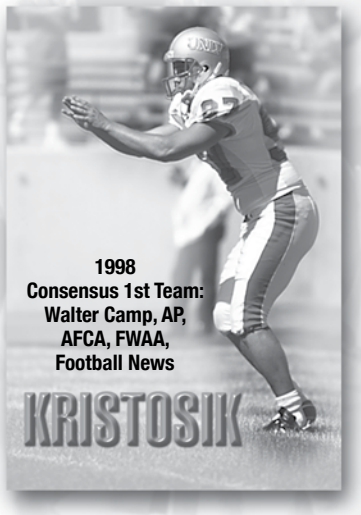
REBEL ALL-AMERICANS

JAMAAL BRIMMER Safety

The first non-senior to earn All-America at UNLV since Randall Cunningham in 1983, Jamaal Brimmer (2001-04) also became the first non-punting first team honoree for the Rebels since 1975. The hometown hero introduced himself to the nation early in the season with the greatest single defensive performance in school in leading his team to a major upset at Wisconsin on national TV. Brimmer's phenomenal day, which included 11 tackles, two interceptions, one fumble return for a TD and two quarterback sacks, earned him the Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week honors. The free safety, who would be voted the school's first two-time consensus league MVP in his career, led the MW with six interceptions and four forced fumbles to go with three sacks and four fumble recoveries in 2003. The first UNLV semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award became the school's first two-time All-American since Cunningham with nods from AP and The Sporting News as a senior. That followed being named a community service All-American as a member of the 2004 AFCA Good Works Team.

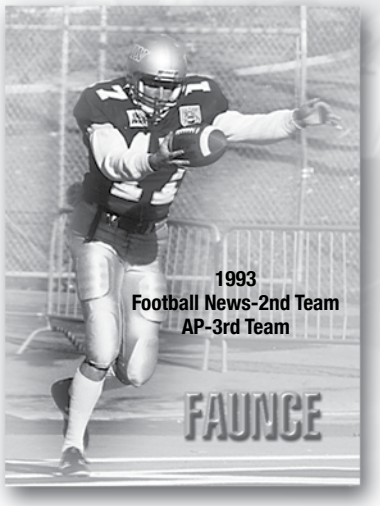
JOE KRISTOSIK Punter

Joe Kristosik (1995-98) was a bright light through the program's only winless season in 1998. He walked on to his hometown team in 1994 and five years later walked away as the school's first and only consensus First Team All-American. Kristosik was the first Rebel booter to lead the nation in punting with a 46.2-yard average, which was the second-highest in NCAA history with a minimum of 75 attempts. Along the way, he turned in perhaps the greatest performance ever by a collegiate punter when he had 13 tries at BYU with eight going longer than 50 yards and a stunning four traveling at least 60 yards, including two season-long kicks of 67 yards. Kristosik became the first-ever UNLV member of the prestigious Walter Camp Football Foundation team. Kristosik was inducted into the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008.



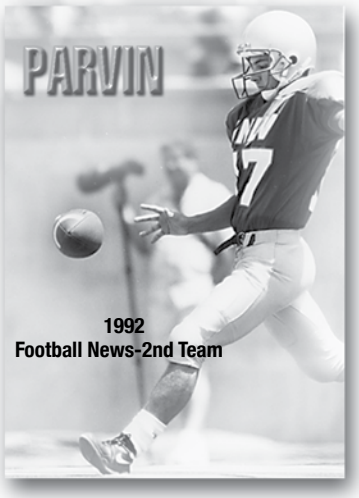
KEVIN THOMAS Cornerback

Making a strong bid as being the best defensive player in school history, Kevin Thomas (1998-2001) turned on the gas to close out his stellar career and become the first Rebel on his side of the ball to earn All-America since 1975. Holder of various school and conference records, KT came to Las Vegas from Sacramento as a scrawny and unheralded defensive back but left as one of the best cover men in the nation en route to being tabbed third team All-America by Football News and fourth team by The Sporting News. The second three-time first team all-conference player in Rebel history, his seven picks as a senior broke the UNLV and MW record for a single season as he led the nation in interception return yardage (213) and defensive scoring (18 points). An iron man who never missed a start in four seasons (UNLV-record 46 overall), his six career touchdowns highlighted a school-record 55 career pass breakups. The Jim Thorpe candidate and MW Defensive Player of the Year played in both the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine Game before being selected by the Buffalo Bills in the NFL Draft. Thomas was inducted into the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012.



BRAD FAUNCE Punter

A transfer from Glendale (Calif.) Junior College, Brad Faunce (1993-94) used his powerful leg to post an impressive two-year career at UNLV. His junior season included a 45-yard punting average that earned him Second Team All-America honors. Also the squad's kickoff man in 1994, Faunce's memorable 91-yard punt vs. UNR was not only a school record, but also helped the Rebels upset the Wolf Pack to win the Big West Conference title and a berth in Las Vegas Bowl III.



BRIAN PARVIN Punter

Brian Parvin (1991-92) became UNLV's first All-American in seven years when he was named to Football News' second team as a senior. A transfer from Mt. San Antonio Junior College in Walnut, Calif., Parvin turned in a fine junior campaign with a 41.9-yard punting average, which was good for 18th in the nation. His senior year, however, produced the second-highest season number in school history with 46.3 – the third-best average in the nation in 1992.

Combining the excitement of an urban location with the charm of a traditional campus, the University of Nevada, Las Vegas offers students a full educational and social experience.

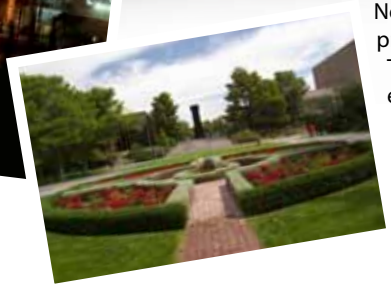
Just over five decades old, UNLV has maintained a healthy rate of growth in enrollment, programs and scholastic excellence as part of the eight-component Nevada System of Higher Education.

Located in the heart of one of the world's most vibrant and dynamic cities, UNLV has matured along with the Las Vegas area. With enrollment more than doubling the last decade, the tremendous growth has meant a flurry of construction resulting in a campus setting boasting academic and athletic facilities second to none.

Steadily becoming a traditional residential university, UNLV provides on-campus housing for more than 2,000 students. A variety of student clubs and organizations along with 37 Greek organizations supplement the social development of students.

From within its 15 schools and colleges, including the William S. Boyd School of Law, UNLV is also becoming a leading research institution of the West. The school's scientific, social science, and business programs attract millions of dollars in research grants annually to fund projects in desert biology, nuclear waste transportation, laser physics, public opinion surveys and many others.

In addition to traditional student programs, UNLV serves diverse local, national and international communities through its Educational Outreach Division, offering Summer Term, Continuing Education and Distance Education programs enrolling more than 53,000 students annually.



With its Performing Arts Center, the campus is the cultural hub of Southern Nevada. World-class orchestras and soloists, dance and theater arts combine to provide a broad selection of concerts and stage productions.

The Barrick Lecture Series and several campus organizations bring noted speakers to the University, and local and visiting artists show their works in the Donna Beam Fine Art Gallery. UNLV has excellent athletic facilities as well, many open for student and public use.

Opened in 1957 as the southern regional division of the University of Nevada with a total of 28 students, UNLV now is home to more than 27,000 students coming from every county in Nevada, all 50 U.S. states and 88 countries. Much of UNLV's tremendous expansion is the result of support from the Nevada Legislature and the state's taxpayers. Private donors have played an important role as well. These gifts support new facilities and programs and, most important, provide the scholarship incentives that bring Nevada's best and brightest student scholars to campus.

UNLV operates an on-campus Center for Business and Economic Research, Center for Economic Education, Harry Reid Center for Environmental Studies (in cooperation with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency), Desert Biology Research Center, Center for Survey Research, Nuclear Waste Transportation Research Center and other research and public-service centers.

Offering 103 undergraduate programs and 123 graduate tracts, UNLV graduated a class of 5,500 last year. The University operates on a semester system and is a member of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, the Council of Graduate Schools, the American Council of Education and the Western College Association. All of the University's academic programs are fully accredited by the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges, and many programs have received further accreditation from independent national accreditation bodies.

PRESIDENT
donald SNYDER

UNLV President Donald Snyder has deep ties to the university and Southern Nevada. An executive with senior leadership experience in both the commercial banking and gaming industries, Snyder has also been involved with UNLV as a volunteer or dean since his arrival in Las Vegas more than 25 years ago. He was appointed acting president in February 2014. As president, Snyder will continue the campus' surge toward Carnegie Tier One status, which includes plans to create a School of Medicine at UNLV.

Snyder was dean of the UNLV Harrah Hotel College from 2010 to 2013 and more recently served as UNLV's executive dean for strategic development. He is also the point person for the UNLV stadium project through his role as chair of the UNLV Campus Improvement Authority Board.

He spent 22 years with First Interstate Bank (now Wells Fargo), rising through the management ranks to become chairman and CEO from 1987 to 1991. He went on to co-found Bank of Nevada, and has been an active member of the Board of Directors throughout its growth into Western Alliance Bancorporation, a multi-state banking organization. In 1992, Snyder led the effort to construct what would become the Fremont Street Experience in downtown Las Vegas. After the Fremont Street Experience successfully opened in 1996, he joined Boyd Gaming, where he served as president from 1997 to 2005.

A prolific fundraiser, Snyder played an integral role as chairman of The Smith Center for the Performing Arts. He is also a former member and chair of the UNLV Foundation and co-chair of the university's successful $537 million Invent the Future capital campaign, which concluded in 2009. Snyder has served on the boards of more than 15 public and private companies, numerous local non-profits, and several legislative commissions, including chairing the Governor's Commission on Medical Education, Research & Training in 2006.

Snyder is a graduate of the University of Wyoming. For his contributions to UNLV, he was awarded the President's Medal in 2000, an Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree in 2001, and was named (by the NSHE Board of Regents) a Distinguished Nevadan in 2003. He was inducted into the Nevada Business Hall of Fame by UNLV's Lee Business School in 2011. Snyder and his wife, Dee, have been married for more than 42 years and have three grown children and three grandchildren.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
tina KUNZER-MURPHY

Born and raised in Las Vegas, Tina Kunzer-Murphy has been a fixture in the Southern Nevada sports community for more than four decades. On July 1, 2013, she added another accomplishment to her long and varied career as she began serving as UNLV Interim Director of Athletics. The move marked two major milestones as Kunzer-Murphy became both the first woman and the first alum of the school to run the department.

Just six months later, the Nevada System of Higher Education Board of Regents removed the interim tag from Kunzer-Murphy's title and approved a three-year contract for her to serve as the school's permanent AD.

"I want to thank the Board of Regents for the tremendous support that they've given to me and to UNLV Athletics," Kunzer-Murphy said. "It's an unbelievable and humbling opportunity to work on behalf of our 450 student-athletes and their talented head coaches. We have a lot of hard work ahead of us but it's a great thing to wake up every morning knowing that you get a chance to make a real difference at your alma mater in your own hometown."

A graduate of Valley High School, Kunzer-Murphy first attended Southern Utah, where she lettered in swimming, before transferring to UNLV to compete in both tennis and volleyball at her hometown university. She earned her bachelor's degree in physical education from the school in 1975.

While pursuing a graduate degree she served as a tennis instructor and dance teacher at both UNLV and Clark County Community College (now CSN).

Soon after earning her master's in education in 1977, she was hired as head coach of the UNLV women's tennis team as well as director of its cheerleading program. When the school dropped tennis for financial reasons in the early 1980s, she was thrust into a management role under then-athletics director Brad Rothermel, and eventually worked with the football and basketball programs, among others, during the department's wildly successful run through the PCAA/Big West Conference. Named UNLV's Senior Women's Administrator in 1981, Kunzer-Murphy oversaw the entire Lady Rebel athletic program, as well as various support groups such as the Rebel Football Foundation, the Rebel Golf Foundation and the Women's Sports Foundation, which she helped create.

In 1983, she was named an assistant athletics director and in 1987 was promoted to senior assistant AD. Kunzer-Murphy became senior associate AD at the University of Pacific in 1992 but then soon returned to town to work for the Las Vegas 51s and Thunder professional sports franchises as director of corporate sales and marketing.

After UNLV moved to the Western Athletic Conference in 1996, Kunzer-Murphy was hired by the WAC to run its annual football championship game and men's and women's basketball championship events in Las Vegas.

Kunzer-Murphy returned to campus in 1999 when she was selected by ESPN Regional Television (ERT) to run the newly formed ESPN Regional at UNLV office, which oversaw the athletic department's corporate sales and broadcasting departments until 2005.

From 2000-12, Kunzer-Murphy served as Executive Director of the Las Vegas Bowl, which ERT purchased. Under her leadership, the bowl game enjoyed six consecutive sellouts from 2006-11, record-high TV ratings and team payouts en route to elevating itself into the national college football landscape

A 2007 inductee of the Southern Nevada Sports Hall of Fame, Kunzer-Murphy in 2010 became the first woman to serve as Chairman of the Football Bowl Association. In summer 2011 she was honored as Las Vegas' Sportsperson of the Year as part of the annual "24-Hour Radiothon" staged by Lotus Broadcasting, which benefits The Caring Place, a local nonprofit organization dedicated to easing the journey of those affected by cancer.

Kunzer-Murphy returned to work for her alma mater in January of 2013 when she was named Director of Sponsorships and Development for the UNLV Alumni Association. She has one son, Stephen, and has been married to former UNLV coach and local high school teacher and coach Greg Murphy since 1990.

THE LIED athletic complex

The Lied Athletic Complex is an 8,500 sq. ft. facility that serves as the central hub for UNLV athletics.

The strength and conditioning center features 8,500-square-feet of main floor containing Olympic platforms, free weights, power racks and more than 60 weight stations. Additionally, a 1,200-square-foot balcony offers areas for plyometrics, stretching and aerobics.

HALL OF FAME

Class of 2012

Seven different Rebel sports were represented during ceremonies as the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame Class of 2012 was honored Oct. 12, 2012.

Six former Rebel standout players, one head coach and a distinguished contributor joined one team in being inducted the night before the Battle for the Fremont Cannon football game between UNLV and Nevada, Reno. Also being honored that night was former Rebel football player and current TV personality, Kenny Mayne, who received the Silver Rebel Award

Born in 1987, UNLV's Athletics Hall of Fame has now grown to 114 members strong. Under the hall's bylaws, former student-athletes must have completed their eligibility at least 10 years earlier to be selected. Coaches and administrators must have stopped working at the University five years previous. All classes now enter on a biennial basis.

FRED ALBRECHT (1974-83, 1995, 2003) The winningest coach in UNLV tennis history, led the Rebel netters and compiled a record of 230-80 for a winning percentage of .742. A longtime administrator on campus, Albrecht was called upon to serve as Interim Athletics Director in both 1995 and 2003 during searches for permanent replacements. He retired from UNLV in 2007 after 38 years with a final title of vice president for university and community relations.

LORENA DIACONESCU (1998-02) is arguably the Rebels women's swimming program's most decorated athlete. She won three consecutive Conference Swimmer of the Year awards from 2000-02 while setting school records in six separate events. Diaconescu earned All-America in 2000 and was honorable mention one year later. Winner of eight MW individual crowns as well as seven relay titles, she was also a two-time Olympian for her home country of Romania.

LINDA FROHLICH (1998-02) The highest-scoring basketball player in UNLV history – men's or women's – finished with 2,355 points and a 21.2 PPG average in her dominating hoops career. The native of Oldendorf, Germany, was named USBWA National Freshman of the Year in 1999, AP Honorable Mention All-America as a sophomore and junior and then Third Team as a senior.

EDDIE OWENS (1973-77) Still the leading Runnin' Rebel scorer in history, was the emerging program's second All-American in men's basketball when he was tabbed First Team by a pair of outlets as a junior in 1976.

JACINT SIMON (1998-2002) turned in a career in the water that rivaled any in school history. The Mountain West Swimmer of the Year three consecutive seasons earned All-America honors at the 2000 NCAA Championships while also being honorable mention in two relays. His fourth All-America finish came in 2002. Simon won 10 conference championships as an individual and one on a relay team and swam for his home nation of Hungary in the 2000 Summer Olympics.

AMIE STEWART (1992-95) was a dominant pitcher for dominant softball program in the mid-1990s. A second team All-America selection as a senior in 1995, her 30-9 mark is still the school record for wins a season. She led her team all the way to the Women's College World Series and tossed two complete games while finishing with a .95 ERA en route to becoming the only Rebel to be named to a WCWS All-Tournament Team.

KEVIN THOMAS (1998-01) Arguably the top cornerback in school history, still holds numerous school and conference defensive records. The first player in school history to start 46 games, Thomas was the first defensive player from UNLV to earn All-America status in 26 years when he was named Third Team by Football News and Fourth Team by Sporting News.

The 1984 UNLV FOOTBALL TEAM was the first of two in school history to win a conference championship and its 11-2 overall record included a victory over Toledo in the California Bowl. Going undefeated in the PCAA, the talent-rich squad featured the conference Offensive Player of the Year in All-America punter/quarterback Randall Cunningham; the Defensive Player of the Year in lineman Aaron Moog; and the Coach of the Year in Harvey Hyde.

DISTINGUISHED CONTRIBUTOR MIKE MILLER is noted Las Vegas artist and illustrator. During the 1980s, Miller created and named the cartoon man with the long moustache known as "Hey Reb." Miller was paid a single dollar for his work, which eventually helped UNLV vault to the top spot in college apparel licensing.

Las Vegas by the Numbers

With a population of 1.8 million and counting, Las Vegas/Clark County is one of the fastest growing areas in the United States and a perfect example of modern urban living. Located in the nation's seventh-largest state, the city of Las Vegas (Spanish for "the meadows") was discovered by Spanish explorers and first settled by a Mormon expedition in 1855. Today, the city is the unquestioned hub of the scenic Southwest. Outdoors, the world-famous Hoover Dam is visited by more than a million people each year while the Lake Mead National Recreation Area is annually host to 9 million visitors for fishing, boating, hiking, camping and water sports. Las Vegans can just as easily head to the surrounding mountains (Nevada means "snowcapped" in Spanish) as Mt. Charleston offers snow skiing from an elevation reaching 12,000 feet and Red Rock Canyon boasts outdoor activities amid breath-taking views. Indoors, of course, Las Vegas offers unmatched excitement but the renowned "Entertainment Capital of the World" has also quickly developed into a first-class community offering families a year-round high-quality standard of living.
